

Artist

Gladys Postans

Gladys Postans is an artist who believes that Art comes from the heart to your hand in whatever media that would best convey this feeling and is inspired by her surroundings whether it be landscape, still-life or the human form.

Currently instructing art classes for the Thunder Bay Parks and Recreation Dept. and has taken part in many workshops from out of town instructors and has attended the Lakehead University Fine Arts Program.