

Roy G Irvine

Mainly a self taught painter who loves the outdoors and through his art tries to capture the strength and rugged beauty of North western Ontario

Now retired he and his wife are able to spend their entire summers at their cottage near Armstrong where Roy sketches and takes photos of outdoor scenes to be painted during the winter months...

