Thunder
GAY

Tickets are now on sale for the biggest bash of the season for Thunder Bay's gay community. A special fund-raising social is being held on Saturday, July 26 in the Ukranian Labour Temple, 203 Ogden Street. All profits from Midsummer Benefit will go toward the formation of a club.

The hall, which is near the Mainline bus route, offers two floors. The lower level will have food and quiet times available with dancing and a bar open on the second. Admission is only $3.50 in advance or four dollars at the door.

Local radio station personalities will emcee the event and one set of live entertainment will be offered. You are welcome to bring along your favourite music for play some time during the evening.

A chart has been drawn up and volunteers are most welcome to help for an hour or so during this very special event.

Doors open at nine with dancing and refreshments until one. Age of majority or at least two pieces of identification will be strictly enforced.

If you are planning a house party or other private gathering afterward, please let us know.
