

JOHN FRANCIS LEDDY

President and Vice-Chancellor
University of Windsor

John Francis Leddy was born April 16, 1911 in Ottawa, but moved to Saskatoon at an early age with his parents. He was educated in that city, and received his B.A. and M.A. at the University of Saskatchewan, before undertaking post-graduate studies in classics at the University of Chicago and, as a Rhodes Scholar, at Exeter College, Oxford, where he obtained a B.Litt. and a D.Phil. degree. In 1938 he married Kathleen Beatrice White, B.A. of Saskatoon, also a graduate of Saskatchewan.

Appointed a member of the department of classics in Saskatchewan in 1936, he became Head of the Department in 1946, Dean of Arts and Science in 1949, and also served as Vice-President (academic) from 1961 until his appointment as president of the University of Windsor, July 1, 1964.

During the past fifteen years he has been elected to many positions of leadership in a wide variety of public and educational societies in Canada, and has served, for various periods, as chairman or president of the following organizations: Educational Council of Saskatchewan, Humanities Research Council of Canada, Humanities Association of Canada, Classical Association of Canada, Canadian Association of Rhodes Scholars, Canadian Catholic Historical Association, Canadian National Commission for UNESCO, Canadian University Service Overseas, World University Service of Canada, and the Organizing Committee of the Company of Young Canadians. Currently he is international vice-president, World University Service, and, since 1964, vice-chairman of the Canada Council.

Travelling widely in North America, and also abroad to Europe, Asia, Australia and Africa, Dr. Leddy has been a Canadian delegate to the International Union of Academics, the Association of Commonwealth Universities, the Commonwealth Education Conference, the East-West UNESCO Conference, the International Federation of the Societies of Classical Studies, and the U.S. National Commission for UNESCO.

Dr. Leddy is the author of a large number of special articles dealing with subjects in the field of university education, the ancient classics, and the history of ideas, notably two series of lectures, one published in 1961 under the title "The Humanities in an Age of Science," and the other published in 1965 and entitled "The Humanities in Modern Education."

He has been awarded honorary degrees by seven universities: St. Francis Xavier University, Assumption University of Windsor, Laval University, University of Ottawa, St. Mary's University, University of Saskatchewan, and University of Toronto.
