ELEVENTH ANNUAL CONVOCAATION FOR THE CONFERRING OF DEGREES AND DIPLOMAS

OUR GUEST

We are honoured to have as our guest, this morning, a distinguished Canadian author, social worker and educator, Miriam Waddington, MSW, MA, Professor of English Literature, York University, Toronto.

Born in Winnipeg on December 23, 1917, to parents who met in that city after emigrating from Russia, Miriam Waddington first attended a secular Yiddish language school in the northend of Winnipeg, then Machray School to the end of grade 8. Her family then moved to Ottawa, and she completed high school there; after which she studied at the University of Toronto, earning a BA in 1939, and a diploma in Social Work in 1942. In 1945 she received the Master of Social Work degree at the University of Pennsylvania; a degree not offered in Canada at that time.

From 1945 to 1960 she lived in Montreal, where, in addition to raising two children, she worked in a number of social agencies, taught Social Work at McGill University, published her first four books of poetry, wrote dozens of book reviews, critical articles, and a monthly radio and television column for the Canadian Forum.

In 1960 she moved to Toronto, and shortly thereafter left social work to teach English literature at York University. Professor Waddington has been teaching there ever since, she has also found the time to continue writing poetry, criticisms, book reviews, and short stories, and to earn her MA degree in English from the University of Toronto in 1968.

She has twice been the recipient of Senior Canada Council Arts grants for writing, and has received various citations for her poetry; has translated the works of a number of Canadian Yiddish poets into English; and has gathered and edited the work of the Canadian poet, A. M. Klein, and the critic and founder of the Northern Review, John Sutherland. Her book of selected poems Driving Home won the J. I. Segal award in 1972; in 1974 she gave the E. J. Pratt Memorial Lecture in Newfoundland; and in 1975 she acted on the English jury for the Governor General's Awards.

Her books of poetry include: Green World, 1945; The Second Silence, 1955; The Season's Lovers, 1958; The Glass Trumpet, 1966; Call Them Canadians, 1968; Say Yes, 1969; Driving Home, 1973; and Dream Telescope, 1972.
