The Honorary Doctor of Letters degree conferred on Arthur Black by Lakehead University recognizes his knowledge and insight into the people of Northwestern Ontario and the world in general.

He is now best known for his eighty-five minute weekly program, Basic Black, described as "inspired lunacy, music and interviews every Saturday morning on CBC radio", Black's style and commentary are what appeal to his Canadian listening public. Over a third of a million listeners per week attest to his popularity. Countless others watch him on CBC-TV's The Journal, while others read his syndicated column in many weekly newspapers across the country.

He has published 3 books, Basic Black, Back to Black, and That Old Black Magic as well as works on the history of Magnus Theatre, Old Fort William and Thunder Bay.

Among Arthur Black's credits are a 1976 Ohio State Award for the best radio children's series; a 1977 George Cadogan Award as the best weekly columnist; a 1986 National Radio Award for Best Opinion/Commentary and a 1987 National Magazine Award for humour.

CONVOCATION

Afternoon Ceremony -- 2:30 p.m. for the Granting of Degrees and Diplomas

TWENTY-SEVENTH ANNUAL CONVOCATION FOR THE CONFERRING OF DEGREES AND DIPLOMAS

KENNETH AVERY ARMSON

Professional Forester

Ken Armson was born in Newtonbrook, Ontario in 1927. Graduating from the University of Toronto, Faculty of Forestry in 1951, he began his career as a research forester with the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests. In late 1952 he joined the Faculty of Forestry.

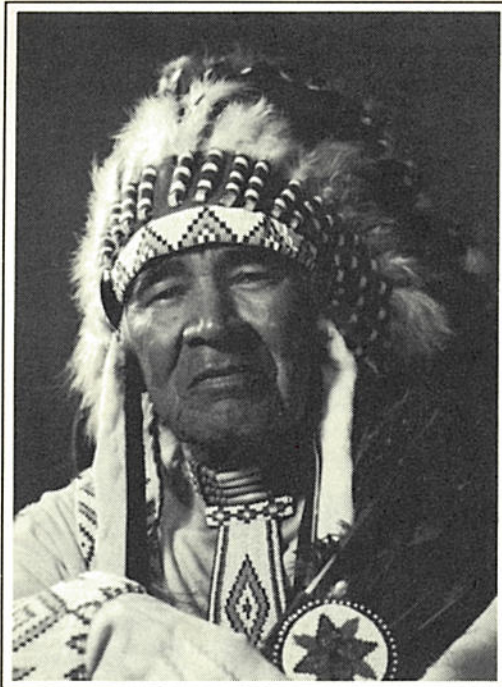

Mr. Armson completed graduate work at Oxford University from 1954-1955 and returned to the Faculty at Toronto where he remained until 1978.

He was approached by the Ontario Ministry of Natural Resources in 1974 to apply his professional and scientific experience to an in-depth evaluation of their forest management program, emphasizing silvicultural and professional practices. The result was the publication of "Forest Management in Ontario 1976".

In 1978, Mr. Armson accepted the post of Special Advisor on Forest Regeneration to the Forest Resources Group of the Ontario Ministry of Natural Resources. On the Ministry's behalf he negotiated with the forest industry for what became today's Forest Management Agreements. In this role, he not only represented the Ministry, but was involved in drafting the original agreements and the legislation which brought the Agreements into law.

Mr. Armson was appointed to the position of Chief Forester in 1980 with the Forest Resources Group of the Ontario Ministry of Natural Resources and remained there until early 1983. In March, 1983, he was appointed Executive Coordinator of the Forest Resources Group and in November, 1986, he became the Provincial Forester for Ontario. In both positions, he promoted the development of technology transfer by the extension of Technology Development Units across the province.

Since leaving the Ontario Ministry of Natural Resources he has been active as a forestry consultant, working for both government and private sector clients. He received the Gold Medal Award of the Canadian Institute of Forestry in 1978 and the Ontario Forestry Award from the Ontario Forestry Association in 1990.

RICHARD CHARLES LYONS

Native Leader

Born in Fort Frances, Ontario in 1925, Richard Charles Lyons has been a well-known figure in Northwestern Ontario for his lifelong commitment to stimulating interest and pride in Native culture.

In 1972, Mr. Lyons founded the Lyons Dance Troupe which has since performed for audiences across Canada, the United States, Europe and for members of the Royal Family. He has travelled extensively in search of original and traditional songs and dances. Although the troupe was discontinued in 1985, Mr. Lyons continues to dance and educate at the invitation of band councils, schools and other organizations.

From 1987 to 1990, Richard Lyons was employed by Dilico Ojibway Child and Family Services. With his expertise in Native culture he visited schools, provided cultural services to First Nation Bands in the Thunder Bay area, and provided counselling for Native families.

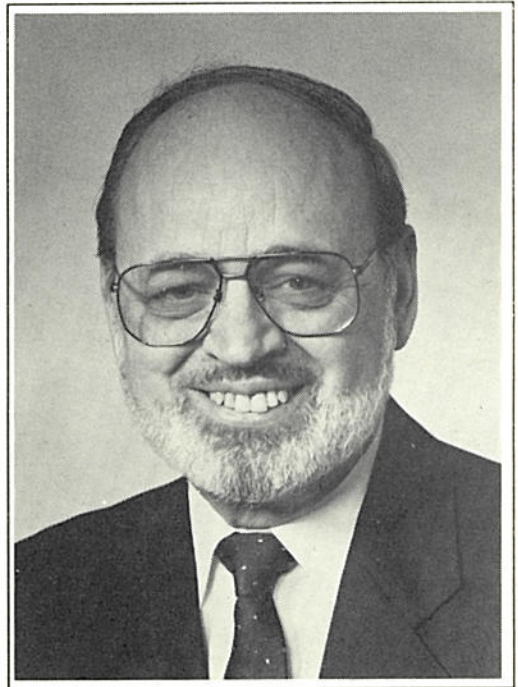

During his present retirement, Mr. Lyons volunteers his services to the Ministry of Corrections by counselling and visiting Native inmates.

Mr. Lyons has been the recipient of two important awards: an Outstanding Achievement Award from the Ministry of Culture and Communications and the Ministry of Citizenship and a Good Citizenship Award from the Ministry of the Solicitor General, both in 1989.

Long recognized as one of the elders in Native society, Mr. Lyons, by his countless achievements and selfless dedication to Native culture, continues to promote understanding through education.

ARNOLD EUGENE WESTLAKE

Local Businessman

Born in Trenton, Ontario in 1930, Arnold Eugene Westlake graduated from Frankford Continuation School in 1948. He later participated in various extension courses for the banking industry at Queen's University and the University of Washington. He also attended the executive development program of the Graduate School of Business of Cornell University.

Mr. Westlake joined the Canadian Bank of Commerce at Trenton, Ontario in January, 1950. During his career he served as field auditor in the bank's head office; worked in international banking in the Caribbean and the United States; was advertising manager in the head office and regional superintendant in the Eastern and Northern regions of Ontario. He resigned in 1973 in order to pursue private business.

Mr. Westlake became an associate dealer for Canadian Tire Corporation in Bolton before transferring to Thunder Bay in 1976. He retired this year. Mr. Westlake has been very active in the Thunder Bay Community. He has given generously of his time to Magnus Theatre Northwest, the Board of the Port Arthur General Hospital, the Rotary Club of Port Arthur and the Municipal Arts Policy Committee for the City of Thunder Bay. As a member of the Board of Governors of Lakehead University (1983-1989) he served on the audit, financial planning, investment, and nomination and executive committees.

During his leisure time, Mr. Westlake enjoys travel, world history, North American and Native Art, the performing arts and boating.
