THIRTY FOURTH
CONVOCATION
1998

Lakehead University

Convocation 1998

Saturday, May 30, 1998 marks Lakehead University's thirty fourth annual convocation for the conferring of degrees and diplomas. The word "convocation" means "calling together". It is a ceremonial meeting of the entire university community. On Convocation Day university members and their guests wear special attire based on a tradition that dates back as long as seven centuries ago. The academic costume, also referred to as academic "dress" or "regalia", had its origins in the ancient European universities. The regalia was devised to distinguish academic persons such as doctors, licentiates, masters and bachelors. In the middle ages they were worn as everyday attire. Gowns were a necessity because of unheated buildings and hoods were needed to cover the heads of medieval scholars.

There are many variations of academic dress. The hood, gown and in some cases the special hat (mortarboard) worn by an individual is determined by the style of the university where he or she received a degree. The colourful gowns and hoods of universities from across Canada, the United States, the United Kingdom and several other nations of the world are worn here today.

The academic dress chosen by Lakehead University is fashioned after that of the University of Oxford, the oldest English-speaking university in the world. The robes worn by the officers of the university - the Chancellor, who presides at convocation, the President (who is also the Vice-Chancellor) and the Chair of the Board of Governors - are all of the Oxford cut and trim. Each has its own distinctive colour. The colourful gowns worn by the individuals who are receiving honorary degrees are of the same design as are the black gowns worn by the student candidates. The ritual at convocation reflects the medieval custom that anyone in a university could wear a gown, but a hood was the symbol of a degree. Students who have met the university's academic requirements (three, four, five or six years of study in particular subjects) wear the symbol of their status as holders of a Lakehead University degree. Lakehead University's bachelor's and master's degree hoods are distinguished by a one or two inch colour border which indicates the degree acquired eg. white for Arts, drab for Commerce, blue for Education, burgundy for Nursing etc. Lakehead's first Ph.D degree will also be conferred this year.

In addition to "earned" degrees, the university confers "honorary" degrees which symbolize the highest honour that can be conferred on an individual by the university. An honorary degree may be awarded in recognition of scholarly or creative attainments or distinguished public service to the country or region. They go to individuals who have been designated by the University's Senate, its senior academic governing body, as deserving special honour. At convocation the degree is awarded honoris causa, or "in the cause of honour". A hood is also given to the recipient and it may be worn to any academic affair. Recipients of these degrees become honorary alumni of the University and they may affix, after their names, the abbreviation of the degree. Three honorary degrees, the Doctor of Laws, the Doctor of Letters, and the Doctor of Engineering will be conferred in today's ceremonies.

The Board of Governors of the university also recognizes individuals who have contributed to the growth, development, welfare and well-being of Northwestern Ontario and of Lakehead University. This is done by the conferring of the title Fellow of the University. You will recognize university Fellows by their familiar blue gown with white velvet epitoge or scarf.

During the processional and the recessional the Marshal for convocation carries the Mace, a silver wand which is a traditional symbol of the university's authority. This mace was given to the university by the Alumni Association in 1971. It bears the university's motto Ad augusta per angusta, Achievement through Effort.

Today the university community celebrates its thirty fourth annual convocation. Its members dress in clothes which are symbolic, not functional, and go through a centuries old ritual for the conferrment of degrees and diplomas. We thank you for being present to share this special event with us.

Photographs - Those wishing to take pictures of the graduates are most welcome to come forward to the left and right of the stage. To avoid congestion of that area, please wait until your particular graduate is ready to receive his or her degree before you come forward.

MARGARET ATWOOD

Poet, Novelist

Margaret Atwood was born and raised in Ottawa, but spent time in northern Ontario, Quebec and Toronto. She received her undergraduate degree from the University of Toronto and her graduate degree from Radcliffe College. Following this and a period of study at Harvard, she accepted positions in the English departments of several Canadian universities.

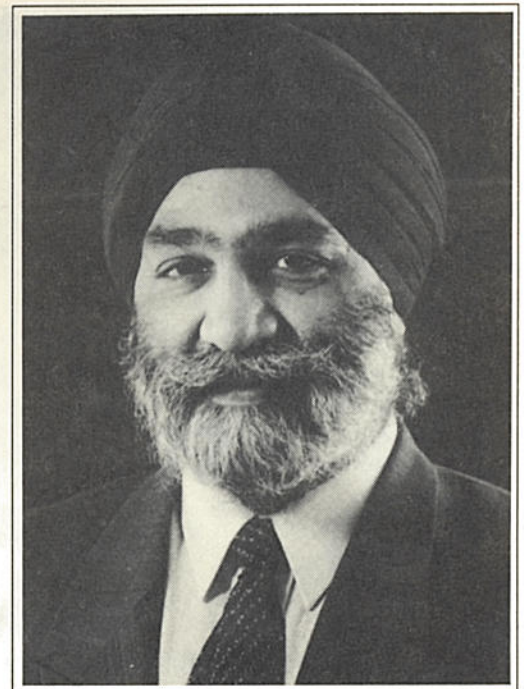

Atwood is one of Canada's most prolific authors and her writing is recognized, studied and enjoyed internationally. In 1962, the year Atwood graduated from the University of Toronto, her first book of poems, Double Persephone, was published. Her remarkable career includes over twenty-five volumes of poetry, fiction, non-fiction and children's works. She is perhaps best known for her novels such as The Edible Woman, Surfacing, The Handmaid's Tale, and recently, Alias Grace. Her works explore themes of feminism and Canadian identity. Critics marvel at her ability to isolate contemporary human issues.

Atwood has been instrumental in promoting an independent identity in Canadian literature. She worked as editor for the House of Anansi Press where she wrote Survival: A Thematic Guide to Canadian Literature and compiled the The Oxford Book of Canadian Verse. In 1982, Atwood became Vice-Chair of the Writer's Union of Canada.

Margaret Atwood is the recipient of numerous awards. Her first major literary award dates back to 1961 when she received the E.J. Pratt Medal. Others include the Governor General's Award for The Circle Game and for The Handmaid's Tale; the Canadian Author's Association Award for Best Novel of 1993 for The Robber Bride and the Giller Prize for Alias Grace. She is a member of the Order of Ontario, Companion, Order of Canada and the recipient of the Commemorative Medal for the 125th Anniversary of Canadian Confederation. She has received honorary degrees from several North American universities.

Margaret Atwood resides in Toronto with novelist Graeme Gibson.

ROBERTA LOUISE JAMIESON

Ombudsman of Ontario

When Roberta Jamieson received her law degree in 1976 from the University of Western Ontario her distinction as the first woman in Canada from a First Nation to obtain a law degree marked the beginning of a career of unique accomplishments and recognition.

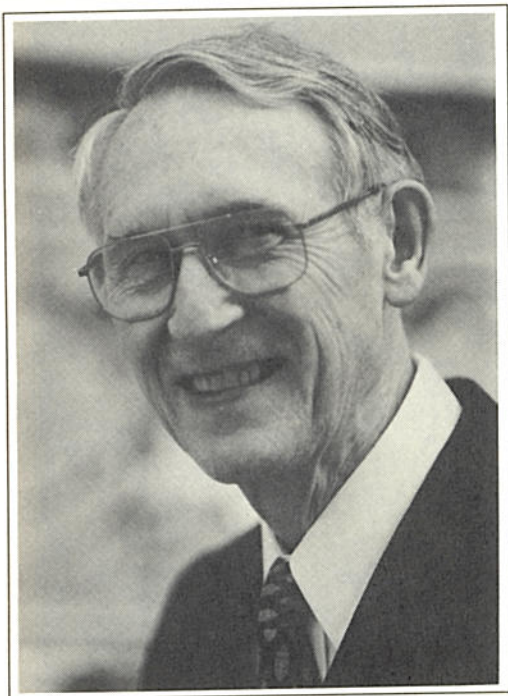

In 1978, Ms Jamieson became the executive assistant to Mr. Justice Patrick Hartt, the first Commissioner of the Indian Commission of Ontario. She went on to become a policy advisor and later, senior mediator for the Commission. In 1982, she was appointed ex-officio member of a special House of Commons committee on Indian self-government. She was the first non-Parliamentarian appointed to this position. In 1985, Ms Jamieson was appointed Commissioner of the Indian Commission of Ontario and held this office until mid 1989.

Roberta Jamieson was appointed as Ombudsman of Ontario in October 1989 for a ten year term. Her responsibility is to investigate and resolve complaints about provincial government organizations, ministries, boards, agencies, commissions and tribunals.

Ms Jamieson has become renown for her efforts in the ongoing development of conflict resolution. She has spoken extensively on this subject and has been active in the initiatives undertaken by the Canadian Bar Association. In 1991, she was named the Goodman Fellow at the University of Toronto for her achievements. In 1992, she was selected by the International Society of Professionals in Dispute Resolution as the first recipient of the Mary Parker Follett Award which pays tribute to "an individual who, with passion, willingness to take risks, and high involvement of those affected, is tackling a contemporary problem in the field of dispute resolution."

Ms Jamieson is a member of the Order of Canada and has received several Honorary degrees. In March of 1998, she was honoured with the National Aboriginal Achievement Award.

She lives with her husband, Tom Hill and their daughter Jessica, where she grew up, on the Six Nations of the Grand River Reserve near Brantford.

FLORENCE JEAN JOHNSTON

Teacher, Community Leader

It would be interesting to listen to Florence Johnston tell about her experiences as a teacher. She began teaching elementary school in 1939 having received her teacher's training at Wesley College in Winnipeg. She taught at Lord Selkirk School in Winnipeg for four years prior to marrying Dr. Charles M. Johnston and moving to Port Arthur.

Florence has directed her energies to the betterment of our community in countless ways. Her wide range of interests include health care, sports, the arts, and politics. From 1967 to 1968 she was President of the Port Arthur General Hospital's Auxiliary, returning in 1989 as Chair of the Fundraising Committee and serving until 1995. She also served as a Port Arthur General Hospital Foundation member from 1992 to 1995.

Florence was a member of the Council for the Ontario Health Services Insurance Plan from 1969 to 1972 and a member and Vice-chair of the Ontario Advisory Council on Senior Citizens from 1978 to 1984.

Florence Johnston is truly a woman of many talents. She served the Northwestern Ontario Ladies Curling Association as President in 1977 and was a delegate to the Canadian Ladies Curling Association between 1977 and 1980. She was actively involved with the Progressive Conservative Port Arthur-Nipigon Riding Association as President in 1973, Chair of the 1971 Provincial Campaign Headquarters, Campaign Manager of the 1972 Federal Campaign and Canvassing Co-Chair of the 1977 Provincial Campaign.
