THIRTY SIXTH
CONVOCATION

Lakehead University

Convocation 2000

Saturday, May 27, 2000 marks Lakehead University's thirty sixth annual convocation for the conferring of degrees and diplomas. The word "convocation" means "calling together". It is a ceremonial meeting of the entire university community. On Convocation Day university members and their guests wear special attire based on a tradition that dates back as long as seven centuries ago. The academic costume, also referred to as academic "dress" or "regalia", had its origins in the ancient European universities. The regalia was devised to distinguish academic persons such as doctors, licentiates, masters and bachelors. In the middle ages they were worn as everyday attire. Gowns were a necessity because of unheated buildings and hoods were needed to cover the heads of medieval scholars.

There are many variations of academic dress. The hood, gown and in some cases the special hat (mortarboard) worn by an individual is determined by the style of the university where he or she received a degree. The colourful gowns and hoods of universities from across Canada, the United States, the United Kingdom and several other nations of the world are worn here today.

The academic dress chosen by Lakehead University is fashioned after that of the University of Oxford, the oldest English-speaking university in the world. The robes worn by the officers of the university - the Chancellor, who presides at convocation, the President (who is also the Vice-Chancellor) and the Chair of the Board of Governors - are all of the Oxford cut and trim. Each has its own distinctive colour. The colourful gowns worn by the individuals who are receiving honorary degrees are of the same design as are the black gowns worn by the student candidates. The ritual at convocation reflects the medieval custom that anyone in a university could wear a gown, but a hood was the symbol of a degree. Students who have met the university's academic requirements (three, four, five or six years of study in particular subjects) wear the symbol of their status as holders of a Lakehead University degree. Lakehead University's bachelor's and master's degree hoods are distinguished by a one or two inch colour border which indicates the degree acquired eg. white for Arts, drab for Commerce, blue for Education, burgundy for Nursing, etc. Lakehead's first PhD degree was conferred in 1998.

In addition to "earned" degrees, the university confers "honorary" degrees which symbolize the highest honour that can be conferred on an individual by the university. An honorary degree may be awarded in recognition of scholarly or creative attainments or distinguished public service to the country or region. They go to individuals who have been designated by the University's Senate, its senior academic governing body, as deserving special honour. At convocation the degree is awarded honoris causa, or "in the cause of honour". A hood is also given to the recipient and it may be worn to any academic affair. Recipients of these degrees become honorary alumni of the University and they may affix, after their names, the abbreviation of the degree. Two honorary degrees, the Doctor of Letters and the Doctor of Engineering will be conferred in today's ceremonies.

The Board of Governors of the university also recognizes individuals who have contributed to the growth, development, welfare and well-being of Northwestern Ontario and of Lakehead University. This is done by the conferring of the title Fellow of the University. You will recognize university Fellows by their familiar blue gown with white velvet epitoge or scarf.

During the processional and the recessional the Marshal for convocation carries the Mace, a silver wand which is a traditional symbol of the university's authority. This mace was given to the university by the Alumni Association in 1971. It bears the university's motto Ad augusta per angusta, Achievement through Effort.

Today the university community celebrates its thirty sixth annual convocation. Its members dress in clothes which are symbolic, not functional, and go through a centuries old ritual for the conferment of degrees and diplomas. We thank you for being present to share this special event with us.

Photographs - Those wishing to take pictures of the graduates are most welcome to come forward to the left and right of the stage. To avoid congestion of that area, please wait until your particular graduate is ready to receive his or her degree before you come forward.

Sainte-Marie Buffery

BUFFY SAINTE-MARIE

Artist, Teacher, Singer and Songwriter

Buffy Sainte-Marie is known not only as an Academy Award-winning songwriter, but also for her innovative work in cross-cultural education using computers in the classroom.

Sainte-Marie was born at the Piapot (Cree) Reserve in Saskatchewan and raised in Maine and Massachusetts. She earned a degree in oriental philosophy, a teacher's degree, and a PhD in Fine Arts, all from the University of Massachusetts.

Her songs "Until It's Time for You to Go", recorded by Elvis Presley, Barbara Streisand and hundreds of other international artists and "Universal Soldier" the anthem of the '60s peace movement, brought her fame and the fortune to found her Nihewan Foundation for American Indian Education.

A teacher before she ever started singing, Buffy Sainte-Marie has continually used her talents in art, music and cutting-edge technology to educate both onstage and in the classroom. For five years in the '70s, Sainte-Marie was a regular on Sesame Street, increasing awareness of the native American presence. She raised her son and toured internationally throughout the '80s to Indigenous communities as well as major cities. In Paris, she was named "Best International Artist of 1993" and in 1995, was inducted into the Juno Hall of Fame.

In 1998 she was presented with the Louis T. Delgado Award as Native American Philanthropist of the Year for her work in The Cradleboard Teaching Project. This project was a cutting edge initiative to raise self esteem in all children through cross-cultural exchange with children on reserves, using classroom computers and accurate core curriculum.

Sainte-Marie operates out of Hawaii and commutes to North America several times a year to teach digital art and music as Adjunct Professor of Fine Arts at the Saskatchewan Indian Federated College in Regina as well as to York University in Toronto where she also serves as an Adjunct Professor.

Buffy Sainte-Marie is an Officer of the Order of Canada and is the recipient of the American Indian College Fund's Lifetime Achievement Award.

MARGARET PAGE

Public Health Educator,
Professor Emeritus of Nursing

Margaret Page has devoted her life to enhancing the quality of health care and the qualifications of health care professionals. This commitment has taken her around the globe.

In 1945, Margaret moved from her home in London, Ontario to Cochrane, Ontario. Following this, she accepted the position of District Nurse with the Ontario Society for Crippled Children in which capacity she travelled extensively throughout Northern Ontario. This role exposed her to the vast expanse of the province as well as to the health care needs beyond the urban centres of Southern Ontario.

Margaret's marriage to Trevor Page, Professor of Geology at the Lakehead College of Arts, Science and Technology, led to Margaret's attachment to Lakehead. Margaret completed a Bachelor of Science in Nursing at Lakehead complementing her Certificate of Public Health Nursing from the University of Toronto's School of Nursing. She went on to complete a Master of Public Health degree from the University of North Carolina in 1970. In 1973, she joined Lakehead University as Assistant Professor in the School of Nursing. She was Chair and Director of the School of Nursing from 1974-77. Margaret worked tirelessly on many university committees and played a significant role in the evolution of Lakehead's School of Nursing. Upon her retirement in 1984, Lakehead University awarded her the title, Professor Emeritus of Nursing.

During her tenure at Lakehead, Margaret incorporated her love of adventure with her interest in public health. The result was two terms as Principal at the University of Malawi's Kamuzu College of Nursing in Africa between 1980 and 1985. There she was instrumental in the design and evaluation of nursing education. From 1989 to 1990, Margaret worked with the Canadian International Development Agency on a project with McMaster University which took her to Karachi, Pakistan.

Margaret is the recipient of numerous honours and awards including the Order of Canada which she received in 1998.

Margaret Page has touched the lives of many as teacher, nurse, and mentor with her knowledge and humanitarian approach to life.

DOUGLAS J. CARDINAL

Architect

Douglas J. Cardinal is an Ottawa-based architect who has gained national and international recognition for his signature architectural designs in Canada and the United States.

Born in Calgary, Alberta in 1934, Cardinal completed a Bachelor of Architecture (Honours) degree at the University of Texas in 1963 and began practising architecture a year later in Edmonton, Alberta.

In 1978, he incorporated his practice under the name of Douglas J. Cardinal Architect Limited, and has since taken on projects of a diverse nature. These projects range from individual houses to institutional and government projects.

Cardinal's distinctive designs are demonstrated in projects such as his award-winning St. Mary's Church in Red Deer, the Grande Prairie Regional College, the Edmonton Space Sciences Centre and the Canadian Museum of Civilization. The firm's work also includes the Kahanawake Tourist Village for the Kahanawake Mohawks in Montreal, the Saskatchewan Indian Federated College in Regina, Saskatchewan, as well as the master plan for the Cree Village of Ouje-Bougoumou, Quebec, which earned a United Nations Award for sustainable development. In 1993, the firm was awarded the design commission for the National Museum of the American Indian on the last remaining site on the Mall in Washington, D.C.

Cardinal's firm has been a pioneer and world leader in the use of computers in the profession of architecture.

Douglas Cardinal is an Officer of the Order of Canada and has received honorary degrees from Carleton University, Trent University, the University of Lethbridge, the University of Windsor, the University of Calgary, and the Massachusetts School of Art.

In 1995, he received a National Aboriginal Achievement Award.

Cardinal is a Fellow of the Royal Architectural Institute of Canada and was awarded the Royal Architectural Institute of Canada Gold Medal, the highest award the profession of architecture in Canada bestows.

PRESTON R. (JERRY) COOK

Executive, Political Organizer
Community Leader

Preston R. (Jerry) Cook has helped to shape the economic, political and social fabric of Northwestern Ontario through his energetic work in business, politics and the community.

Born in Fort William, Ontario in 1923, Cook received his early education in Port Arthur elementary and secondary schools before going on to Queen's University where he completed a Bachelor of Commerce degree in 1943. He joined the army and saw active service during World War II. In 1947, he married Barbara Marie Bain and had two children: son Grigor and a daughter Gail.

For 35 years, Jerry Cook was active in the construction industry, working his way up through the ranks to become President of Barnett-McQueen, a company that provided heavy construction services to the grain and mining industries in Canada and the United States.

From 1981-87, he served as General Manager and CEO of the Thunder Bay Harbour Commission during which time he witnessed six of the busiest years for Thunder Bay's international port.

His lifelong involvement and interest in politics began in the mid-1960s when he volunteered to be campaign manager for his friend the late Bob Andras. Robert K. Andras ran successfully as a Liberal candidate representing the Port Arthur Riding in the 1965 federal election and with Cook's help succeeded in winning every subsequent election until his retirement from politics in 1980.

Cook retired in 1987, but continues to work as a consultant and to serve as past Chair of St. Joseph's Foundation, Director of the Thunder Bay International Airports Authority Inc. and President of Thunder Bay Condominium No. 5.

Throughout his life, Jerry Cook has taken a leadership role in many businesses and community organizations. His impressive list of accomplishments include serving as Director of Centra Gas Ontario Inc., President of the Lakehead Chamber of Commerce, Chair of the Thunder Bay Library Board, Commissioner of the National Capital Commission, Commissioner of the Thunder Bay Harbour Commission and Chair of St. Joseph's General Hospital. Jerry Cook is an honorary colonel with the Lake Superior Scottish Regiment.
