Lakehead University Convocation 2008

Lakehead University's forty-fourth convocation for the conferring of degrees and diplomas is being celebrated on Saturday, May 31, 2008, at our Thunder Bay campus and Saturday, June 7, 2008 at our Orillia campus.

The word "convocation" means "calling together." It is a ceremonial meeting of the entire University community. On Convocation Day, University members and their guests wear special attire based on a tradition that dates back as long as seven centuries ago. The academic costume, also referred to as academic "dress" or "regalia," had its origins in the ancient European universities. The regalia was devised to distinguish academic persons such as doctors, licentiates, masters, and bachelors. In the middle ages they were worn as everyday attire. Gowns were a necessity because of unheated buildings, and hoods were needed to cover the heads of medieval scholars.

There are many variations of academic dress. The hood, gown, and in some cases the special hat (mortarboard) worn by an individual are determined by the style of the university where he or she received a degree. The colourful gowns and hoods of universities from across Canada, the United States, the United Kingdom, and several other nations of the world are worn at Lakehead University today.

The academic dress chosen by Lakehead University is fashioned after that of the University of Oxford, the oldest English-speaking university in the world. The robes worn by the officers of the University – the Chancellor, who presides at convocation, the President (who is also the Vice-Chancellor) and the Chair of the Board of Governors – are all of the Oxford cut and trim. Each has its own distinctive colour. The colourful gowns worn by the individuals who are receiving honorary degrees are of the same design as are the black gowns worn by the student candidates. The ritual at convocation reflects the medieval custom that anyone in a university could wear a gown, but a hood was the symbol of a degree. Students who have met the University's academic requirements (three, four, five, six or seven years of study in particular subjects) wear the symbol of their status as holders of a Lakehead University degree. Lakehead University's bachelor's and master's degree hoods are distinguished by a one or two inch colour border which indicates the degree acquired, e.g. white for Arts, blue for Education, green for Forestry, burgundy for Nursing, etc. Lakehead's first PhD degree was conferred in 1998.

In addition to "earned" degrees, the University confers "honorary" degrees which symbolize the highest honour that can be conferred on an individual by the University. An honorary degree may be awarded in recognition of scholarly or creative achievements or distinguished public service to the country or region. They go to individuals who have been designated by the University's Senate, its senior academic governing body, as deserving special honour. At convocation the degree is awarded honoris causa, or "for the sake of honour." A hood is also given to the recipient and it may be worn to any academic affair. Recipients of these degrees become honorary alumni of the University and they may affix, after their names, the abbreviation of the degree. Two honorary degrees, the Doctor of Science and the Doctor of Fine Arts, will be conferred in this year's ceremonies at the Thunder Bay campus.

The Board of Governors of the University also recognizes individuals who have contributed to the growth, development, welfare, and well-being of Northwestern Ontario and of Lakehead University. This is done by the conferring of the title Fellow of the University. You will recognize University Fellows by their familiar blue gown with white velvet epitoge or scarf.

During the processional and the recessional the Marshal for convocation carries the Mace, a silver wand which is a traditional symbol of the University's authority. This mace was given to the University by the Alumni Association in 1971. It bears the university's motto Ad augusta per angusta, Achievement through Effort.

As Lakehead University celebrates its forty-fourth convocation with students, parents, friends, and community, it is worthwhile to remember that convocation participants dress in clothes which are symbolic, not functional. They go through a centuries-old ritual for the conferment of degrees and diplomas – a milestone in the lives of our graduates. We thank you for being present to share this special event with us.

Photographs – Those wishing to take pictures of the graduates are most welcome to come forward to the left and right of the stage. To avoid congestion of the areas, please wait until your particular graduate is ready to cross the stage before you come forward.

FORTY-FOURTH ANNUAL CONVOCATION
FOR THE CONFERRING OF DEGREES AND DIPLOMAS

Joseph MacInnis

Physician, Deep-sea Explorer, Author

Dr. Joseph (Joe) MacInnis graduated in medicine from the University of Toronto in 1962 but soon gravitated to the world of deep-sea diving. During his career, he has led thirty expeditions and logged more than 5,000 hours under the Great Lakes and the Atlantic, Pacific, and Arctic oceans. In the 1960s, he was medical director of the American Man-in-Sea program and worked on the U. S. Navy's Sea Lab project, where he gained an international reputation for his research into the physiology of deep-sea diving.

Between 1970 and 1983, Joe led thirteen undersea expeditions into Canada's high Arctic. He designed and built Sub-Igloo, the first Arctic dive station and, in 1974, led the first team of scientists to dive below the North Pole. Between 1978 and 1983, he led a team that discovered the world's northernmost known shipwreck, the HMS Breadalbane.

In 1985 he was an advisor to the Titanic discovery team and two years later became the first Canadian to set foot on the wreck. In 1991 he was co-leader of an expedition to make the film Titanica in the IMAX giant-screen format. Director James Cameron has said that it was this expedition that inspired his 1997 Hollywood movie Titanic.

The International Joint Commission hired Joe in 1993 to conduct a study on using new media techniques to enhance the cleanup of the Great Lakes and St. Lawrence River. In 1994, he led a team that made the first multiple research sub dives to the wreck of the Edmund Fitzgerald in Lake Superior.

In recent years, Joe has worked with James Cameron on a series of deep-sea documentaries, including Aliens of the Deep (2005) and Last Mysteries of Titanic, a live television broadcast from the wreck, which aired on the Discovery Channel in 2006.

Joe has written ten books and numerous articles for newspapers and magazines, including Scientific American, National Geographic and Wired. His books include Underwater Man, Saving the Ocean, Fitzgerald's Storm, Titanic in a New Light, Surviving Terrorism, Breathing Underwater, and Aliens of the Deep.

Joe's passion for the oceans has made him an advocate for the environment. From 1996 to 2004, he chaired the TD Financial Group's Friends of the Environment Foundation, and he is currently involved in the Trudeau Foundation, the Pearson College of the Pacific, Pollution Probe, the World Wildlife Fund, and the Trudeau Center for Peace and Conflict Studies.

In recognition of his work, Dr. Joe MacGinnis was appointed to the Order of Canada in 1976. He has also received the Queen's Golden Jubilee Medal (2002), the Admirals' Medal for outstanding achievements in Canadian maritime activities, and five honorary doctorates.

Stephen S. Hessian

Pulp and Paper Industry Leader

Stephen S. (Steve) Hessian believes that the success of Lakehead University is crucial to the overall economic success of Northwestern Ontario. For over thirty years, Steve's leadership skills and business acumen have made significant contributions to Lakehead University's growth and development.

As a manager and consultant in the pulp and paper industry, Steve has played a prominent role in the region's economy. Highlights of his career include serving as Domtar's Resident Manager at its Red Rock Mill from 1974 to 1979 and again from 1984 to 1993, and serving as President of Thunder Bay Packaging from 1995 to 1999. Since 2005 he has been a partner in Thunder Bay Fine Papers and has put tremendous energy into reviving the former Cascades paper mill, with the goal of boosting the Thunder Bay economy and creating up to 300 jobs. He also continues to work as a consultant in the pulp and paper industry.

At the same time, Steve has put great effort into promoting the interests of Lakehead University. From 1987 to 2002, he was a hardworking member of the Board of Governors. He was Chair for two consecutive terms, 1998-1999 and 1999-2000, and also served on all Standing Committees. In all his roles on the Board, Steve focused on finding solutions and developing plans to move forward on a wide range of matters, such as donating university land to build the new hospital, laying the groundwork for the Northern Ontario Technology Centre and the Northern Ontario School of Medicine, encouraging national corporate representation on the Board, and developing partnerships with Confederation College. He served on the search committees for a President and a Vice-President and also on the board of the Lakehead University Foundation.

Through his network of contacts—personal, professional, and political—he has raised the profile of Lakehead University and widely promoted its interests. He brings a broad perspective and deep insight to all discussions of issues affecting the University.

By leadership and example, Steve has also been a significant presence in fundraising efforts at Lakehead University. After stepping down from the Board of Governors, Steve became a strong and effective member of the ATAC ~ Future of the North Capital Campaign to finance the Advanced Technology and Academic Centre. He gave generously himself and urged others to do the same.

He holds a BSc from St. Francis Xavier University (1955) and a Mechanical Engineering degree from McGill University (1957).

Now semi-retired, Steve divides his time between Ottawa and Prince Edward Island, with frequent trips back to Thunder Bay. He keeps in contact with Lakehead University and continues to watch for opportunities to advance its interests.

Elizabeth Murray

Life Scientist

Dr. Elizabeth (Liz) Murray is an accomplished researcher in life sciences. She graduated from Lakehead University with a B.Sc. (1986) and H.B.Sc. (1988) in biology, with Dr. John Ryder as her thesis supervisor. She went on to earn her M.Sc. (1989) and Ph.D. (1994) in pathology at Queen's University, focusing her research on the genetic causes of von Willebrand's Disease, a bleeding disorder.

In post-doctoral research at the University of Calgary, she studied how hormones and growth factors communicate with cells, and how the disruption of these processes can play a role in the development of cancer.

Liz has received numerous academic awards, including the R. Samuel McLaughlin Fellowship from Queen's University; a Health Research Personnel Development Program Fellowship from the Ontario Ministry of Health; post-doctoral fellowships from the Alberta Cancer Board and the Alberta Heritage Foundation for Medical research; and the prestigious national fellowship from the Medical Research Council of Canada (now the CIHR).

In 1999 Liz joined SemBioSys Genetics, a new biotechnology company in Calgary. SemBioSys makes protein-based pharmaceutical and non-pharmaceutical products, using genetic engineering and an internationally known technology platform.

For the first few years, Liz helped formulate DermaSphere®, a compound that has come to market in a variety of personal care and topical pharmaceuticals. Since 2005 she has been the company's Group Leader of Efficacy and Pharmacology, where she oversees the testing of all new products. These include plant-produced insulin, designed to help meet the burgeoning demand for insulin; apolipoprotein AI (Apo AI), a cardiovascular therapy; and ImmunoSphere, a feed additive for shrimp farming.

Throughout her career, Liz has earned a reputation as a highly skilled and innovative scientist. She has contributed to 11 peer-reviewed research papers and has presented her work at numerous national and international scientific conferences.

Outside work, she serves as president of St. Andrew's Heights Community Association in Calgary and is the community representative for the Foothills Hospital Community Working Group. She was a community representative appointed to the City of Calgary Low-Density Land Use Bylaw Committee, which wrote the low-density residential portion of new development bylaws for the City of Calgary.

Liz Murray's dedication and leadership skills have served her well both in university settings and in industry. She has become an outstanding contributor to the biotechnology boom.

Catherine Bird

Adult Education Entrepreneur

Catherine (Kate) Bird's interest in teaching led her to the Faculty of Education at Lakehead University, where she earned her B.Ed. in 1994. She worked as a physical education teacher for a few years, but found a better fit when she turned to teaching adult education in the private sector.

When the company she worked for folded, Kate decided to start her own adult education business, which she called Career Essentials Inc. In 1998, she opened her first three Career Essentials schools in Toronto, Woodbridge, and Scarborough.

Through Career Essentials, Kate helps adult learners learn new skills and prepare for the job market. Some of her students have disabilities, and many have been injured on the job. The programs she offers include literacy skills, academic upgrading, English as a Second Language, computer training, job search skills, customer service training, and GED (General Educational Development) test preparation. Each student receives a thorough assessment and an individualized program. Kate's goal is always to help people get back into the workforce as quickly and smoothly as possible.

Career Essentials also works with private companies to upgrade the skills of their existing employees, including literacy in the workplace, customer service training and computer skills.

After ten years, Kate has 34 Career Essentials locations across Ontario (including Thunder Bay) and is expanding into Nova Scotia. Already, her company has trained approximately 6000 adults. She prides herself on providing quality service: small classes, dedicated teachers, and a supportive atmosphere.

Kate and her business have won numerous honours. In 2000 Kate received PROFIT magazine's Young Entrepreneur of the Year Award. In 2001 and 2002, PROFIT named Career Essentials one of Canada's Hottest Start-ups. In 2002 the Joseph L. Rotman School of Management at the University of Toronto awarded Kate the prestigious Start-up Award, which is one of the Rotman Canadian Woman Entrepreneur of the Year Awards. In each of the past five years, PROFIT has ranked Kate as one of Canada's Top 100 Women Business Owners.

While Kate's career path has been different from that of most B.Ed. graduates, she shares every teacher's enthusiasm for seeing students succeed. From this foundation, she has built a booming business in adult education. She lives in Ajax with her husband, Shaun Young, and their daughters aged three and five.

Gordon Pinsent

Actor, Writer, Director

A fifty-year veteran of theatre, film, television, and radio, Gordon Pinsent is one of Canada's best known and most beloved actors.

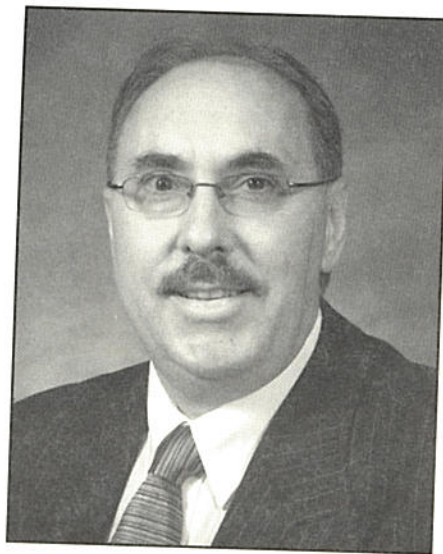

Born in Newfoundland, Gordon began his career by bluffing his way into a part at the Manitoba Theatre Centre. He quickly learned his craft, working onstage and in the first live radio drama out of Winnipeg. In 1959 he headed east, and was soon appearing at the Stratford Festival and in theatres in Toronto. He became a national star in the late 1960s in the television series Quentin Durgens, M.P., where he played a rookie Member of Parliament.

For a few years, he lived in Los Angeles, appearing in a supporting role in Norman Jewison's The Thomas Crown Affair (1968), as the president of the United States in the science fiction cult classic Colossus: The Forbin Project (1970), and in many television roles. While there, he wrote the screenplay for The Rowdyman, the semi-autobiographical story of Will Cole, a restless Newfoundland rogue. The Rowdyman was released as a feature film in 1972, with Gordon directing and starring as well.

In the late 1970s, Gordon wrote the CBC television series A Gift to Last and starred in it as Edgar Sturgess, a bombastic sergeant. Gordon also wrote, directed, and starred in John and the Missus (1987), a film about a Newfoundlander fighting to save a caved-in mine and the town he loves. Some of his other best-known characters are Swiftwater, a card shark in Klondike Fever; Sgt. Fraser Senior in Due South; Duff in Powerplay; Hap Shaughnessey in The Red Green Show; and Billy Pretty in The Shipping News. In addition to his many television and film scripts, Gordon wrote a well-regarded memoir, By the Way, in 1992.

Gordon has received two ACTRA Awards for television work, including the ACTRA Award for Excellence (2004); three Genie Awards for achievements in Canadian film; six Gemini Awards, including the Earle Grey Award for Lifetime Achievement (1997); a Dora Mavor Moore Award for stage work; and Lifetime Achievement Awards from the Banff International Television Festival, the Summer Institute of Film and Television in Ottawa, and the Canadian Academy of Cinema and Television. He has been granted honorary degrees by Queen's University, the University of Prince Edward Island, and Memorial University in Newfoundland. In 1979 he was made Officer of the Order of Canada and, in 1998, promoted to Companion within the Order. On his 75th birthday, July 12, 2005, the Grand Falls -Windsor Arts and Culture Centre in Newfoundland was renamed the Gordon Pinsent Centre for the Arts.

At the age of 77, Gordon Pinsent is still hard at work. On March 3, 2008, he won his most recent Genie Award, this time for Best Actor for his portrayal of a man coping with his wife's Alzheimer's disease in the film Away from Her. He has said, "I don't believe in retirement, but if I had retired, I'd have missed doing this movie, which would have been one of the great losses of my life."

Silvio Di Gregorio

Business Executive and Community Builder

Silvio Di Gregorio is one of Thunder Bay's most respected business executives and an exemplary friend of Lakehead University.

Together with his brother, Bruno Di Gregorio, he has built Bruno's Contracting into a major road and highway contractor and one of the city's largest residential and commercial land developers, employing 300 people. In recognition of his vision, determination and hard work, the Northern Ontario Business Awards named Silvio "Executive of the Year" in 1994.

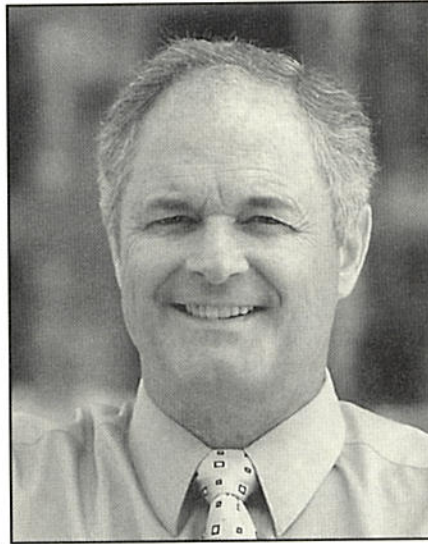

In 2005, when Whitewater Golf Club opened for its first full season, Silvio and Bruno achieved their dream of creating a world-class golf course in this region. Whitewater has proven very popular, and last summer over $500,000 dollars was raised for numerous charities in Thunder Bay through golf events hosted there. Silvio believes that having fun and helping others go hand in hand.

Silvio has always been proud of his Italian heritage. He is a past president and current director of the Italian Business and Professional Association of Thunder Bay, which promotes the recreational, cultural, social, artistic, business, and professional activities of Italian Canadians.

His enthusiasm for Lakehead University stems from his passion for educating the future leaders of Northwestern Ontario and also from his belief that the University is an engine of economic growth. For many years he has built goodwill for the University in the local Italian community. He is a founding director of the Institute of Italian Studies at Lakehead University, which organizes lectures, publishing, exchanges, and other initiatives to promote and celebrate Italian language, culture, and history. The Institute of Italian Studies has also taken a leading role in fundraising, most notably accepting Arthur Mauro's challenge to the local Italian community to match his donation of $150,000 to the ATAC - Future of the North Capital Campaign. Silvio became a major contributor, and his enthusiasm inspired others to give. When the goal was reached, Silvio hosted a celebration at Whitewater.

Silvio believes that private enterprise has an important role to play in encouraging economic development. As a founding director of Ambassadors for Business Development Northwest, he contributes his time and expertise to encouraging new businesses to move into the community. Without fanfare, he has assisted enterprises such as the Molecular Medicine Research Centre (MMRC) and Genesis Genomics. He is an active member of the board of Thunder Bay Ventures, a non-profit organization that provides business services and funds economic development projects.

Silvio is well known for his warmth and his ability to bring people together to make positive things happen. His deep commitment to the University and to the community is an example to all.

Glenn A. Miller

Real Estate Developer

Glenn Miller is Chairman of PenEquity, a leading real estate development and management company. He received his B.Sc. (1967) and Graduate Diploma in Business (1968) at Lakehead University and his M.B.A. (1971) at the Ivey School of Business at the University of Western Ontario.

After a number of years in the financial sector, Glenn founded PenEquity Management Corporation in 1984. PenEquity is a private Canadian company that provides asset management to pension funds and institutional investors. It specializes in large-scale retail and entertainment projects, as well as traditional retail, commercial, and residential development. PenEquity's retail and entertainment development projects across Canada total more than 4.2 million square feet.

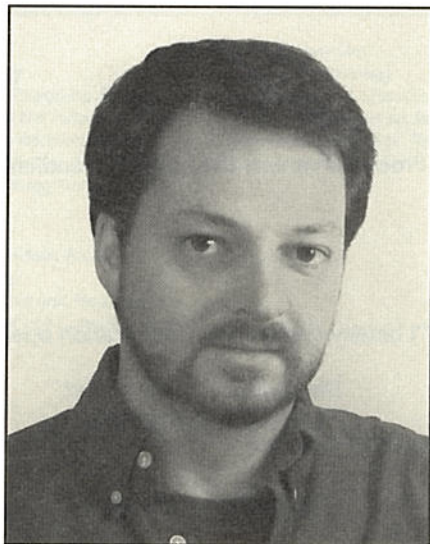

A current PenEquity project is Toronto Life Square, a retail, office, and entertainment complex on the northeast corner of Yonge and Dundas Streets in Toronto. When complete, it will have 500,000 square feet of floor space, filled with restaurants, stores, and 24 movie theatres. The outside of the building features 20,000 square feet of outdoor signage, including Canada's largest high-definition video display, measuring 30 by 52 feet.

Glenn is passionate about the Olympic movement and has attended the games in Sydney, Salt Lake City, and Athens. Through PenEquity and Toros Entertainment Inc. (a related company), Glenn headed up the development of The Olympic Spirit visitor centre in Toronto. The centre, which operated from 2004 to 2006, combined interactive sports simulators, multimedia presentations, and Olympic artifacts to give visitors—especially children—a taste of the Olympic experience. At a gala held at Disneyland, this project won the Themed Entertainment Association's 2005 Thea Award for Outstanding Achievement in the Branded Visitor Center category.

An avid athlete in his own right, Glenn has skied the "Haute Route" over the French and Swiss Alps and also enjoys snowboarding and golf.

Glenn and his wife Linda are extensive and enthusiastic travellers. They have completed multiple treks in the Kumbu/Everest area of Nepal and regard the late Sir Edmund Hillary as a hero. For ten years, Glenn served as a director and major fundraiser for The Sir Edmund Hillary Foundation, which builds schools and hospitals in Nepal. Glenn and Linda have also reached the summits of Mt. Kilimanjaro and Mt. Sinai.

As head of PenEquity, Glenn is committed to seeking new investment opportunities for his clients and creating innovative retail landscapes. However, he believes that true success is found not on a balance sheet, but in creating a balance between work and family life. The greatest satisfaction for Glenn and Linda comes in time spent with their sons, Neil (Barbara) and Ian (Sophie), and grandchildren, Melissa and Austin.

Duncan Weller

Artist and Writer

Duncan Weller is an energetic and multi-talented artist. Born in Lennoxville, Quebec, he moved to Thunder Bay as a young child when his father, Geoffrey Weller, became a Political Science professor at Lakehead University.

After graduating from Sir Winston Churchill High School, Duncan enrolled in Fine Arts at Lakehead University. In his second year, he switched his major to English, where his love for children's stories was rekindled in Dr. James Gellert's Children's Literature course. While at Lakehead University, Duncan contributed photography, cover art, and cartoons to the student newspaper, The Argus.

When he completed his B.A. in 1989, Duncan moved to British Columbia, where he worked at various jobs to support himself as he completed manuscripts and illustrations for several children's books. He also spent some time in Toronto and Montreal, but returned to Thunder Bay in 2005.

Three of Duncan's children's books, which he both writes and illustrates, have been published by Simply Read Books: Space Snake (2004), Night Wall (2005), and The Boy from the Sun (2007). The Boy from the Sun was awarded the 2007 Governor-General's Literary Award for Children's Literature – Illustration. The Governor-General's Awards are the oldest and most prestigious awards for Canadian literature.

Duncan Weller's The Boy from the Sun, with its striking mix of techniques, lures the unsuspecting reader away from a dark, gloomy and featureless industrial-urban milieu into a brilliantly coloured alternative world of light, colour and hope, which, in a twist in a pictorial narration, turns out to be the real world they were living in all along. This charming, fresh and joyful book perfectly melds story and image, to both deliver its message and form a thoroughly satisfying whole.

Duncan also has an interest in film. In 2007 he created a seven-minute animated short for the Thunder Bay Police Department, which is part of a package given to victims of break-and-enter crimes. With the help of his brother, Eric Weller, he made an animated, high-definition DVD version of Night Wall, which premiered at the Bay St. Film Festival in September, 2007. Currently, he is working on a script for a film to be made in collaboration with Rodney Dwira.

His first major art show, with over 70 works for children and adults, was presented at Thunder Bay Art Gallery from April 4 to May 18, 2008. He teaches in local schools as part of the Learning Through the Arts program and is currently seeking a publisher for several more children's books, a young adult novel, and a book of poetry.

In all his work—visual art, writing, and films—Duncan Weller observes the world in a fresh, insightful way that delights and inspires both children and adults.
