WELCOME TO LAKEHEAD UNIVERSITY'S 50TH CONVOCATION CELEBRATION!

Convocation is a traditional ceremony during which the University officially grants the degrees and diplomas earned by its students. The word "convocation" means "calling together". It is a ceremonial meeting of the entire University community.

Academic Regalia

On Convocation Day, University members and their guests wear special attire based on a tradition that dates back as long as seven centuries ago. The academic costume, also referred to as academic "dress" or "regalia", had its origins in the medieval European universities. The regalia were devised to distinguish academic persons as doctors, licentiates, masters, and bachelors.

There are many variations of academic dress. The hood, gown, and in some cases the special hat worn by an individual are determined by the style of the university where he or she receives a degree. The colourful gowns and hoods of the universities from across Canada, the United States, the United Kingdom, and several other nations of the world are worn at Lakehead University today.

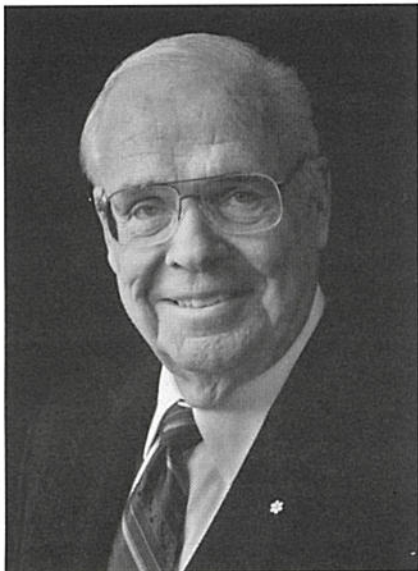

The academic dress chosen by Lakehead University is fashioned after that of the University of Oxford, the oldest English-speaking university in the world. The robes worn by the officers of the University – the Chancellor, who presides at convocation, the President and Vice-Chancellor and the Chair of the Board of Governors – are all of the Oxford cut and trim. Each has its own distinctive colour. The colourful gowns worn by the individuals who are receiving honorary degrees are of the same design as are the black gowns worn by the student candidates.

The ritual at convocation reflects the medieval custom that anyone in a university could wear a gown, but a hood was the symbol of a degree. Students who have met the University's academic requirements (three, four, five, six or seven years of study in particular subjects) wear the symbol of their status as holders of a Lakehead University degree. Lakehead University's bachelor's and master's degree hoods are distinguished by a one or two inch colour border which indicates the degree acquired (i.e. white for Arts, gold for Science, blue for Education, burgundy for Nursing, etc).

The Mace

During the processional and the recessional, the Marshal for convocation carries the Mace, a silver wand which is a traditional symbol of the University's authority. This mace was given to the University by the Alumni Association in 1971. It bears the University's motto "Ad augusta per angusta", Achievement through Effort.

GREETINGS FROM THE CHANCELLOR

I am delighted to welcome you, your families, and friends, as we celebrate your achievements at one of Canada's most remarkable universities.

Convocation is a time-honoured tradition for graduates of all ages, and schools of all levels, around the world. It celebrates the success of academic achievement, a major foundation for whatever you choose to do in life.

I congratulate each of you and your families for all the effort and support that have made today a memorable moment to cherish.

I also urge you to become proud Ambassadors for Lakehead University wherever destiny takes you.

Best wishes,

Dr. Derek H. Burney, O.C.
Chancellor
Lakehead University

GREETINGS FROM THE PRESIDENT AND VICE-CHANCELLOR

Every day, people around the world celebrate achievements, whether they are big or small, in their jobs, their hobbies, or families. Convocation is a time to celebrate academic achievement. Today, we are celebrating you.

Together, with your families and friends, we share in how your long list of accomplishments in and outside the classroom have culminated into this moment: your graduation from Lakehead University.

Your potential is boundless, and your experience at Lakehead will affect your lives in ways you can't even imagine.

Everything you are and everything you learn shapes what you do, where you go, and who you are. You have been down the challenging road that is post-secondary education. You chose to push yourselves and test your resolve. You have overcome obstacles, remained focused, and, today, you reap the reward of your determination and commitment.

I congratulate you all on what you have achieved as students at Lakehead University. As we celebrate all that you have done to get here, Convocation is by no means a last step. It is another step in your exceptional lives — an achievement preceding many more — and one that we celebrate, together.

Congratulations,

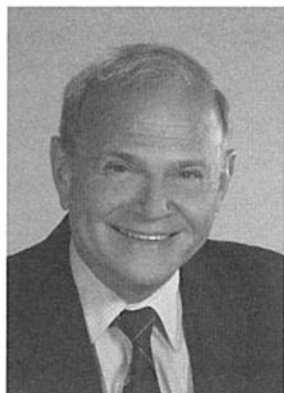

Dr. Brian J.R. Stevenson
President and Vice-Chancellor
Lakehead University

Honorary DEGREES

The University confers "honorary" degrees which symbolize the highest honour that can be conferred on an individual by the University. An honorary degree may be awarded in recognition of scholarly or creative achievements or distinguished public service to the country or region. They are awarded to individuals who have been designated by the University's Senate, its senior academic governing body, as deserving special honour.

At Convocation, the degree is awarded honoris causa, or "for the sake of honour." A hood is also given to the recipient and it may be worn to any academic affair. Recipients of these degrees become honorary alumni of the University and they may affix, after their names, the abbreviation of the degree.

This year, Lakehead University is proud to honour the following exceptional individuals:

DR. ARNOLD ABERMAN Doctor of Science

Dr. Arnie Aberman shaped the course of the Northern Ontario School of Medicine (NOSM) and has had a national and international impact on the field of medical education.

Born in Montreal, Arnie received his medical degree from McGill University in 1967. He completed residencies in internal medicine in Canada followed by further training in pulmonary diseases and critical care medicine in New York and California.

Dr. Max Harry (Hal) Weil, who was a founder of critical care medicine and a University of Southern California Distinguished Professor of Medicine, recalled Arnie as "perhaps the most outstanding young doctor I've ever had the privilege to train." Arnie quickly fulfilled his early promise. His achievements include playing a major role in establishing critical care medicine as an independent discipline in Canada and restructuring The Toronto Hospital's Department of Medicine. He joined the University of Toronto's Department of Medicine in 1973 and became director of the Mount Sinai Hospital Intensive Care Unit. Then, in 1977 at the young age of 33, Arnie was chosen as Mount Sinai's physician-in-chief.

From 1989 to 1992, he was physician-in-chief of The Toronto Hospital as well as the University of Toronto's chairman of medicine and Sir John and Lady Eaton Professor of Medicine. He served as dean of medicine from 1992 to 1999.

In 2002, Arnie was appointed consulting dean of the fledgling Northern Ontario School of Medicine, the country's first new medical school in more than 30 years.

Arnie directed his boundless energy and agile mind to drafting NOSM's business and implementation plan and envisioning NOSM's unique governance model. It is the only Canadian school of medicine to serve two universities – Lakehead University and Laurentian University.

Arnie is also a prolific researcher and writer with over 60 publications investigating the management of shock and other problems facing critically ill patients. A popular medical lecturer, he's been a visiting professor at many medical schools and held leadership positions in numerous academic organizations and hospitals.

In 2011, Dr. Arnie Aberman was named a Member of the Order of Canada and in 2013 he received an Honorary Doctorate of Laws from Laurentian University.

RICHARD WAGAMESE

Doctor of Letters

Richard Wagamese is one of Canada's leading Aboriginal authors and journalists known for his gripping stories about the joys and sorrows of Aboriginal life. Richard is Ojibway from the Wabaseemoong First Nation, and much of his writing, including his widely-acclaimed 2012 novel Indian Horse, is set in Northwestern Ontario.

Richard's parents were survivors of the residential school system, and the legacy of the trauma they endured was passed on to their son. Brought up in foster care, he was unable to complete high school and has suffered from post-traumatic stress. Nevertheless, he achieved his dream of becoming a professional writer and has produced an impressive body of work including seven novels, three memoirs, and a book of poetry.

His first novel, Keeper'n Me, published in 1994, earned the Best Novel Award from the Writers' Guild of Alberta. In 2007, his third novel, Dream Wheels, won the Canadian Authors Association Award for fiction. In 2011, his memoir One Story, One Song received the George Ryga Award for Social Awareness in Literature.

Indian Horse brought Richard to the attention of a national and international audience. It portrays the horrific abuse suffered by students at a residential school while also celebrating the game of hockey and the power of the human spirit. Indian Horse was a finalist in the 2013 CBC Canada Reads competition and won the inaugural Burt Award for First Nations, Métis, and Inuit Literature for young people. In addition, Indian Horse was a longlist finalist for the 2014 IMPAC Dublin Literary Award, a prestigious international prize.

His latest novel, Medicine Walk, is the story of a young man who journeys through the Rocky Mountains with his dying father.

Richard has had a successful career as a print, radio, and television journalist. In 1991, he became the first Aboriginal Canadian to win a National Newspaper Award. He has twice won the Native American Press Association Award and was honoured with an Aboriginal Achievement Award for Media and Communications.

In 2010, Richard Wagamese received an Honorary Doctor of Letters from Thompson Rivers University in Kamloops, British Columbia, where he currently resides.

THE HONOURABLE BOB RAE

Doctor of Laws

The Honourable Robert (Bob) Rae is a gifted negotiator, lawyer, and distinguished former statesman. His endeavours are linked by the conviction that social justice must be sought for every Canadian.

Although Bob spent his early childhood in Ottawa, he also grew up in the United States and Europe as his diplomat father was moved to different postings.

Bob graduated from the University of Toronto in 1969 and then attended Oxford University on a Rhodes Scholarship. During this period, Bob's belief in the transformative power of social justice was strengthened when he helped squatters in London find rental lodgings.

After receiving his Bachelor of Philosophy from Oxford in 1971, Bob returned to Canada. He earned a law degree from the University of Toronto in 1977 and won a seat as a Federal MP in 1978 with the New Democratic Party (NDP).

Bob was elected at the federal and provincial levels a total of eleven times. As the provincial NDP leader, he served as Premier of Ontario from 1990 to 1995.

In 2005, he completed a post-secondary education report that led to significant policy changes and substantially increased Ontario universities' base budgets. In 2008, he returned to Ottawa as a Liberal MP and was interim leader of the Liberal Party from 2011 to 2013.

Bob has been a longstanding advocate for First Nations' right to self-government and full social and economic equality. In 2013, Bob resigned from Parliament and joined the law firm Olthuis Kleer Townshend LLP as a senior partner, focusing his practice on First Nations issues. Currently, he is lead negotiator for the Matawa First Nations in talks with the Ontario Government to develop Northwestern Ontario's "Ring of Fire" mineral deposits.

In an interview Bob explained that, "the stronger self-government is, the stronger the capacity for making decisions is, the healthier a community can become."

Bob Rae has been recognized with numerous honorary degrees and awards from Canadian and international universities, colleges, and organizations. He was appointed to the Privy Council of Canada in 1998, named an Officer of the Order of Canada in 2000, and received the Order of Ontario in 2004.

SATURDAY, MAY 31ST, 2014
2pm Ceremony

THE HONOURABLE FRANK IACOBUCCI

Doctor of Laws

The Honourable Frank Iacobucci has made outstanding contributions to Canada's civic life and discourse as a lawyer, academic, judge, policy advisor, and negotiator.

Frank grew up in Vancouver and earned bachelors of commerce and law degrees from the University of British Columbia before studying at Cambridge University where he received a master's of law in 1964 and a diploma in international law in 1966. He practised corporate law before moving to academia. Between 1967 and 1985, Frank was affiliated with the University of Toronto as a law professor, law dean, and university vice-president. Frank then served as the federal deputy minister of justice and deputy attorney general.

Frank was appointed chief justice of the Federal Court of Canada in 1988 and a Supreme Court of Canada justice in 1991. He returned to private practice with the firm Torys LLP in 2004.

The protection of human rights has been a hallmark of Frank Iacobucci's career. He was the commissioner of an internal federal inquiry into the alleged torture of three Arab-Canadians in the Middle East and he represented the federal government in the negotiation of the 2005 Indian Residential Schools settlement.

In 2013, he released his landmark report investigating the under-representation of First Nations people on Ontario juries. The report, commissioned by the provincial government, made recommendations to address systemic discrimination against Aboriginal Canadians.

Frank is now the Ontario government's lead "Ring of Fire" negotiator. This region in Northwestern Ontario contains vast mineral deposits and Frank is working with the Matawa First Nations who live there to foster sustainable mineral exploration and mining.

When he was announced as lead negotiator Frank said, "I feel passionately about involving First Nations in decisions about development in their communities and traditional lands and ensuring they benefit from the economic opportunities to be realized from development in the Ring of Fire."

Frank Iacobucci has received numerous awards and distinctions. In 2007, he was appointed a Companion of the Order of Canada and this year he was named an Honorary Witness by the Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada for his advancement of Aboriginal issues.

fellows of the UNIVERSITY

The Board of Governors of the University recognizes individuals who have contributed to the growth, development, welfare, and well-being of Northwestern Ontario, Simcoe County and of Lakehead University. This is done by the conferring of the title Fellow of the University. You will recognize University Fellows by their familiar blue gown with white velvet epitoge or scarf.

This year, Lakehead University honours:

JACQUELINE DOJACK
Fellow of the University

Jacqueline Dojack is always ready to apply her formidable energy to helping individuals and organizations flourish. Jacqueline supported Lakehead University on its path to becoming an innovative nationally-recognized institution. From 1996 to 2008, she served on Lakehead's Board of Governors and coordinated major fundraising campaigns. As Board of Governors Chair, Jacqueline was involved in two historic milestones: the opening of the Northern Ontario School of Medicine (NOSM) and the opening of Lakehead's Orillia campus.

Jacqueline began her career with the Lakehead Board of Education in 1968, progressing from teacher to superintendent of education. In 1990, she joined the Ontario Ministry of Education and Training's northwestern branch where she held senior positions until retiring in 1998. That same year, Jacqueline founded Dojack Associates Ltd. to provide program reviews, strategic planning services, and dispute resolution.

Jacqueline Dojack has volunteered extensively with community groups including the Thunder Bay Symphony Orchestra, the Port Arthur Rotary Club, and Nu-Vision Ministry. She was on NOSM's Board of Directors from 2007 to 2013. Currently, she's president of the Lutheran Community Care Centre's Board of Directors and a member of the United Way Thunder Bay Board of Directors and the City of Thunder Bay Police Services Board.

LIZ MCWEENY
Fellow of the University

For 35 years Elizabeth (Liz) McWeeny has been a passionate advocate for refugee rights and protection. Her efforts began at the grass roots level in 1979 when she volunteered with Citizenship and Immigration Canada and the Roman Catholic Diocese of Thunder Bay to launch the Private Sponsorship of Refugees Program which resettled hundreds of refugees in Northwestern Ontario. Liz was chairperson of the Thunder Bay Friends of Refugees and she is a founding member of the D.O.O.R.S. to New Life Refugee Centre.

She's been a member of the Canadian Council for Refugees since 1998, including two terms as president, and was named a Member of the Order of Canada in 2012 for her refugee work. More recently, Liz has focused on poverty reduction. In 2008, she and her husband, Richard Buset (BA'73), founded Compassionet Impact Development Canada to sponsor home-building, micro-business loans, and education programs for the poor in Puerto Vallarta, Mexico, where she and Richard reside for part of the year.

Along with her husband, Liz McWeeny has supported Lakehead University initiatives such as the ATAC building campaign, the establishment of the William H. Buset Centre for Music and Visual Arts, and the creation of student bursaries.

Lakehead University Alumni FEATURES

Lakehead University is proud of its Alumni

CHRISTOPHER MUSHQUASH Outstanding Young Alumni Award

Dr. Christopher Mushquash is a dedicated psychologist and researcher respected for his integrity. As well as being nationally recognized for his expertise in First Nations mental health and substance use, Christopher is an assistant professor with Lakehead University's Psychology department and the Northern Ontario School of Medicine.

Christopher is Ojibway, and a member of Pays Plat First Nation. He grew up in Sioux Lookout, Ontario, where he saw how gaps in health care services and supports compromised the lives of Aboriginal and rural Canadians.

This situation sparked a resolve to do something. The turning point came when Christopher was studying at Lakehead and chose a psychology course elective.

"I realized that psychology provided an opportunity to learn research and clinical skills that might be useful for First Nations peoples, and rural and remote communities," he says. Christopher completed his Honours Bachelor of Science in Psychology in 2002 followed by a master's in Experimental Psychology, also from Lakehead, in 2004.

He was recruited to Dalhousie University's clinical PhD program by Canada Research Chair and Dalhousie Professor Patrick McGrath who describes Christopher as "a leader who draws people to him." After finishing his doctorate, Christopher returned to Thunder Bay as a Lakehead faculty member.

AHMOO ANGECONEB Alumni Honour Award

Ahmoo Angeconeb launched his illustrious art career at the age of five, drawing on anything he could find, including his mother's walls.

Today, Ahmoo's works - drawings, serigraphs, linocut prints, paintings, and etchings - have been featured in solo exhibitions throughout North America and Europe and can be found in public and private collections worldwide.

He has been a consultant and juror for the Ontario Arts Council, an artist-in-residence in northern Scandinavia, and is in high demand as an arts educator in Ontario schools. Ahmoo has become a global ambassador for Ojibway art.

Ahmoo was born in Sioux Lookout, Ontario, but grew up on the Lac Seul First Nation. When he was six, he was sent to residential school in Pelican Falls with his older siblings. Although his parents exposed him to Ojibway culture and language, he was reacquainted with traditional ceremonies by elders he met while attending high school in Kenora.

As a teenager, he was inspired by the famous Woodland School artist Norval Morrisseau. Subsequently, Ahmoo studied Visual Arts at York University and Adult Education at Dalhousie University before completing an Honours Bachelor of Fine Arts at Lakehead University in 1993.

ASHLEIGH QUARRELL

Outstanding Young Alumni Award

One has to wonder what our community would be like if everyone had Ashleigh Quarrell's spirit and dedication. This Honours Bachelor of Commerce grad received the 2013 Governor General's Caring Canadian Award for her volunteer work with organizations including Special Olympics Thunder Bay, Habitat for Humanity, and, particularly, Camp Quality.

Ashleigh is quick to point out her alma mater's contribution to her successes. "Lakehead University empowered me to become who I am as a person and as a professional," she says.

Recently, Ashleigh became the director of Camp Quality Northwestern Ontario and Confederation College's media and communications officer. She has also worked at the Northern Ontario School of Medicine, Thunder Bay Insurance, and the Alzheimer Society of Thunder Bay. In addition, she's a member of SHIFT – Thunder Bay's young professionals network.

This year, the Thunder Bay Chamber of Commerce recognized Ashleigh's community engagement and leadership by awarding her a "Top 20 under 40" Northwestern Ontario Visionary Award.

MARK TILBURY

Alumni Legacy Award

From the moment he set foot on the Thunder Bay campus as a fresh-faced student 24 years ago, Mark Tilbury has been helping Lakehead University students and alumni succeed. "Mark is a passionate Lakehead supporter," says Rob Jamieson, the current president of the Alumni Association of Lakehead University. "He's always ready to lend a hand, no matter what the circumstance." "Lakehead was my first choice," Mark says. "I never wanted to study anywhere else." While completing his Honours Bachelor of Commerce degree, he worked as a student placement officer and a student caller for the Alumni Annual Fund phone-a-thon.

Mark received his degree in 1994 and within six months of graduation, he joined the Alumni Association of Lakehead University Board of Directors and served continuously from 1994 until 2013, including two terms as president. He was also a member of Lakehead's Board of Governors.

In 2013, shortly after completing a master's degree in Philanthropy and Development from Saint Mary's University, Minnesota, Mark Tilbury's longstanding relationship with his alma mater took a new turn. He's now developing innovative approaches to engage with alumni across the globe as Lakehead University's Alumni and Community Relations Director.

MAE KATT

Alumni Honour Award

Mae Katt has devoted her life to improving First Nations health, most recently working with high school students who come from northern reserves to study in Thunder Bay.

Over a distinguished health care career spanning four decades, Mae, a member of the Temagami First Nation, has been honoured many times for her achievements as a clinician, health administrator, educator, and researcher.

She was named a Fellow of Lakehead University in 1996, one of Lakehead's 40 Northern Lights in 2005, and received the President's Award in 1986 for her contributions to the student community. Her research has been recognized by the Canadian Breast Cancer Foundation, Ontario Chapter.

In 1986, Mae received her Honours Bachelor of Science in Nursing from Lakehead University, becoming one of the first Nursing Aboriginal graduates, and in 1995 she earned a Master of Education. She has also completed the Primary Health Care Nurse Practitioner and Northern Clinical Practice programs. Mae worked with the School of Nursing to develop the Native Nurses Entry Program and became its first coordinator.

Professor EMERITI

Dating back to the 18th century, the Latin term “emeritus” was originally used in ecclesiastical circles for those who were distinguished and retired but continued to perform certain duties.

At Lakehead University, we use this title in a similar fashion. A Professor or Associate Professor who has rendered distinguished service to the University in a full-time academic capacity for ten years or more is offered this title.

This year, Lakehead University is proud to honour the following distinguished colleagues with the title Professor Emeritus/Emerita:

DR. JANE CROSSMAN

Professor Emerita of Kinesiology

DR. MEDHAT RAHIM

Professor Emeritus of Education

DR. DOLORES WAWIA

Professor Emerita of Education

DR. RICHARD BERG

Professor Emeritus of Philosophy

DR. ALLAN GILBERT

ORDER OF PROCEEDINGS

Graduate and Undergraduate Degrees and Diplomas to be conferred:
Faculty of Engineering, Faculty of Natural Resources Management,
Faculty of Science and Environmental Studies, Faculty of Social Sciences and Humanities

Pre-Convocation Ceremony Welcome

Organ and Trumpet Prelude

Processional - Pomp and Circumstance by E. Elgar

The audience is asked to stand as the Academic Procession enters

O Canada

Invocation

The Chancellor

"I hereby declare this Convocation open"

Introduction of Platform Party

Introduction of Honorary Degree Candidate

Conferring of Honorary Degree

Convocation Address

Introduction of Honorary Degree Candidate

Conferring of Honorary Degree

Convocation Address

Musical Interlude

Presentation of the Recipients of Emeritus Titles

President's Address

Presentation of Candidates for Degrees and Diplomas

Conferring of Degrees, Diplomas and Medals/Awards

Degrees and Diplomas Granted in Absentia

Message from the Alumni Association

Chancellor's Closing Convocation

"I hereby declare this Convocation closed"

Recessional

The audience is asked to kindly wait until the graduates have exited the Auditorium.

Dr. Dean Jobin-Bevans

Marcella Smithers, Terry Wood and Ted Vaillant

Robert Perrier

Elder Gerry Martin

Derek H. Burney, Chancellor

Dr. Brian J. R. Stevenson, President and Vice-Chancellor

David Paul Achneepineskum

Derek H. Burney, Chancellor

Dr. Brian J. R. Stevenson, President and Vice-Chancellor

Honourable Bob Rae

Derek H. Burney, Chancellor

Dr. Brian J. R. Stevenson, President and Vice-Chancellor

Honourable Frank Iacobucci

Audrey DeRoy (Honours Song)

Dr. Moira McPherson, Acting Provost and Vice-President Academic

Dr. Brian J. R. Stevenson, President and Vice-Chancellor

Dr. Dean Jobin-Bevans

Andrea Tarsitano, Associate Vice-Provost Enrolment and Registrar

Robert Jamieson, President, Lakehead University Alumni Association

Derek H. Burney, Chancellor

Ryan Moore

FACULTY OF ENGINEERING

MASTER OF SCIENCE IN ENGINEERING

ALABDRABALNABI, Nadeer
Control Engineering
Thesis: Investigation of
Solar Photovoltaic Powered
Thermoelectric Heat Pump
Performance and Control Under
Thunder Bay's Cold Climate

ALAWI, Majed Mohammed
Control Engineering
Thesis: Performance and Emissions
of a DI Diesel Engine Fueled by Different Biodiesel Blends

ALILOU, Shahab
Electrical & Computer Engineering
Thesis: Heuristic Approaches
for Energy-Efficient Shared
Restoration in WDM Networks

CHEN, Kuang-Lun
Electrical & Computer Engineering
Thesis: Improving Power of L1
Data Cache and Register File
Utilizing Critical Path Instructions

DIAZ, Sandra
Electrical & Computer Engineering
Thesis: Prediction of Overheating
Close to Bone Interfaces Generated by
High Intensity Ultrasound Transducers

LI, Tao
Electrical & Computer Engineering
Thesis: RF Coils Design for Small
Animal MRI Imaging at 3T Using
Hyperpolarized ¹²⁹Xe and Inert
Fluorinated Gases

NAYAK, Siddhant
Control Engineering
Thesis: Real-Time Implementation
of Some Attitude Estimation
Algorithms on a Quadrotor UAV

OSMAN, Shazali
Control Engineering
Thesis: Novel Hilbert Huang
Transform Techniques for Bearing
Fault Detection

PAN, Allen Chih Lun
Electrical & Computer Engineering
Thesis: Mobile Robot Tank with
GPU Assistance

PATEL, Nirav R
Control Engineering
Thesis: Speed Sensorless and
MPPT Control of IPM Synchronous
Generator for Wind Energy
Conversion System

REYNOLDS, Dane Sterling
Environmental Engineering
Thesis: Progressive Freeze
Concentration of Naphthenic Acids

SINGH, Jaskirat
Electrical & Computer Engineering
Thesis: Dynamic Bandwidth
Scheduling and Burst Construction
Algorithm for Downlink in (4G)
Mobile WiMAX Networks

WONG, Wai Lun
Electrical & Computer Engineering
Thesis: An Integrated Ultrasound
Transducer Driver for HIFU Applications

ZHAO, Na
Electrical & Computer Engineering
Thesis: A New Fingerprint Design
Using Optical Orthogonal Codes

ZOU, Hongbin Bin
Electrical & Computer Engineering
Thesis: Online Loss Minimization
Based Direct Torque and Flux
Control of IPMSM Drive

Lakehead

UNIVERSITY

Our Mission

To be recognized as an innovative comprehensive university that provides an education that is about how to think, not what to think.

We Believe....

We believe our students make Lakehead University different.

We believe that our students want an innovative comprehensive university where they have the highest chance of success.

We believe that our students have the passion and drive to realize their dreams and succeed.

We believe that our students want the intellectual freedom to pursue the unconventional.

We believe in the diversity that comes from our students of many cultures and many nations.

We believe that our students are passionate about both their own individuality and their communities.

We believe in our students.
