WELCOME TO LAKEHEAD UNIVERSITY'S 54TH CONVOCATION CELEBRATION!

Convocation is a traditional ceremony during which the University officially grants the degrees and diplomas earned by its students. The word "convocation" means "calling together." It is a ceremonial meeting of the entire University community.

Academic Regalia

On Convocation Day, University members and their guests wear special attire based on a tradition that dates back as long as seven centuries ago. The academic costume, also referred to as academic "dress" or "regalia," had its origins in the medieval European universities. The regalia were devised to distinguish academic persons as doctors, licentiates, masters, and bachelors.

There are many variations of academic dress. The hood, gown, and in some cases the special hat worn by an individual are determined by the style of the university where he or she receives a degree. The colourful gowns and hoods of the universities from across Canada, the United States, the United Kingdom, and several other nations of the world are worn at Lakehead University today.

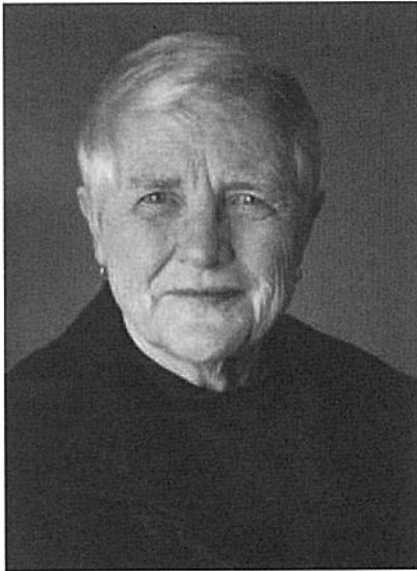

The academic dress chosen by Lakehead University is fashioned after that of the University of Oxford, the oldest English-speaking university in the world. The robes worn by the officers of the University – the Chancellor, who presides at convocation, the President and Vice-Chancellor and the Chair of the Board of Governors – are all of the Oxford cut and trim. Each has its own distinctive colour. The colourful gowns worn by the individuals who are receiving honorary degrees are of the same design as are the black gowns worn by the student candidates.

The ritual at convocation reflects the medieval custom that anyone in a university could wear a gown, but a hood was the symbol of a degree. Students who have met the University's academic requirements (three, four, five, six or seven years of study in particular subjects) wear the symbol of their status as holders of a Lakehead University degree. Lakehead University's bachelor's and master's degree hoods are distinguished by a one or two inch colour border which indicates the degree acquired (i.e. white for Arts, gold for Science, blue for Education, burgundy for Nursing, etc).

The Mace

During the processional and the recessional, the Marshal for convocation carries the Mace, a silver wand which is a traditional symbol of the University's authority. This mace was given to the University by the Alumni Association in 1971. It bears the University's motto "Ad augusta per angusta", Achievement through Effort.

Honorary DEGREES

The University confers "honorary" degrees which symbolize the highest honour that can be conferred upon an individual by the University. An honorary degree may be awarded in recognition of scholarly or creative achievements or distinguished public service to the country or region. They are awarded to individuals who have been designated by the University's Senate, its senior academic governing body, as deserving special honour.

At Convocation, the degree is awarded honoris causa, or "for the sake of honour." A hood is also given to the recipient and it may be worn to any academic affair. Recipients of these degrees become honorary alumni of the University and they may affix, after their names, the abbreviation of the degree.

This year, Lakehead University is proud to honour the following exceptional individuals:

JIM SYMINGTON

Jim Symington was born in Port Arthur (now Thunder Bay), Ont. and spent his elementary school days in Hurkett, where his parents ran the local general store.

Jim completed his high school education and was a member of the first graduating class of Lakeview High School (now St. Ignatius). He received a Bachelor of Commerce degree from Queen's University, then trained as a Chartered Accountant with a major Accounting firm in Toronto.

This led to a rewarding career in Accounting and Finance, including as Controller of a major investment dealer in Toronto, proprietor of his own public accounting firm, and Secretary-Treasurer of a regional trucking and real estate company upon his return to Thunder Bay.

Jim's connections with Lakehead University go back many years. His first two years of high school were completed at Port Arthur Collegiate Institute, which now houses Lakehead's Bora Laskin Faculty of Law.

He took one year towards his Commerce degree at Lakehead College of Arts, Sciences and Technology in the early stages of its conversion to Lakehead University. Later, he spent a year as a lecturer of Accounting and Finance at Lakehead's Faculty of Business Administration in its fledgling years.
