History of Lakehead University

Lakehead University evolved from the Lakehead Technical Institute (LTI), which was established in 1946. From LTI, Lakehead became the Lakehead College of Arts, Science and Technology in 1956. The Lakehead University Act was given Royal Assent by the Lieutenant Governor of Ontario in 1965, and Lakehead University was established. The first degrees granted by Lakehead University were in Arts and Science in 1965. Now, only 40 years later, the University has over 7,500 students, more than 37,000 alumni working around the world, and a bright future. Lakehead University has grown into a vibrant and dynamic institution and we will continue to build on past strengths for the future!

Why Celebrate 40 years?

The mission of the Lakehead University 40th Anniversary Celebration has been to celebrate Lakehead University's 40th Anniversary, and the institution's history and development as a leader in higher education in the City of Thunder Bay and surrounding region, and to bring back a significant number of alumni and friends to take part in this celebration.

The Alumni Association of Lakehead University (AALU)

The Alumni Association of Lakehead University exists to provide opportunities for links among alumni, the University and the community, and to be an active partner in the direction, success and prosperity of Lakehead University. The AALU is proud to have supported the 40th Anniversary Celebrations throughout 2005. We would like to take this opportunity to thank all the people who have made this weekend such a success – without the support of fellow alumni and friends, this weekend would not have been possible. For more information about all the AALU's services and events, please visit our website at www.lakeheadualumni.ca

Italian

A democratic republic since 1946, Italy (population 58 million) with its famous boot-shaped peninsula and two large Mediterranean islands (Sicily and Sardinia) is one of the world's most popular tourist destinations. This year, its capital city Rome was again selected (second year in row) as the best city in Europe by Travel & Leisure travel magazine, with the city of Florence, voted second.

Ukrainian

The Republic of the Ukraine (population 48 million) is mostly a land of fertile plains (steppes) located in the southeast part of Central Europe. It became an independent nation in August 1991 after the fall of the Soviet Union (which had occupied the Ukraine since 1922). Traditionally an agricultural area, the Ukraine is one of the world's main centres for sugar production. The capital city is Kiev (Kyiv).

Finland

The Republic of Finland (population 5 million) gained its independence on December 6, 1917, after centuries of being a grand duchy under Sweden and later, Russia. Located in northern Europe, Finland borders the countries of Norway, Sweden and Russia and has over 60,000 lakes in a land about the size of Montana. The capital city is Helsinki.

First Nations

According to the Canadian government, 4.4% of all Canadians have Aboriginal ancestry. There are over 608 First Nations in Canada, comprising 52 Nations or cultural groups (Cree, Mohawk, etc.) and more than 50 languages. The provinces with the largest proportion of Aboriginal people are Manitoba and Saskatchewan.

Canada owes its name to the Huron-Iroquoian word kanata meaning "village" or "settlement" and Ontario, to the Huron word ontariio meaning "beautiful lake".

Oriental

Known as Siam until 1939, the Kingdom of Thailand (population 65 million) is a constitutional monarchy and the only country in Southeast Asia that has never been taken over by European powers. Thailand is slightly more than twice the size of Wyoming, has a tropical climate and enjoyed a free-enterprise economy. The capital city is Bangkok.

India

The Republic of India (population 1 billion) - slightly larger than one-third the size of the United States - has been an independent nation since August 15, 1947. Its diverse economy ranges from traditional village farming to wide range of modern industries and services. Geographically, India has a bit of everything: upland plain in south; flat and rolling plain in Ganges; deserts in the west; and, Himalayas in the north. The capital city is New Delhi.

Canadian

Canada (population almost 39 million) is the second largest country in the world with 9,984,670 square kilometres (Russia is first with over 17,075,200 square kilometres). An independent country with a parliamentary democracy since Confederation on July 1, 1867, Canada's 1,408,800 kilometres of highways stretch from the Atlantic to Pacific Oceans and north to the Arctic (only 497,306 kilometres are paved). The capital city is Ottawa.

German

The Federal Republic of Germany (population over 82 million) is Europe's largest economy (world's fifth) and most populous nation. In 1945, after the Second World War, Germany was divided into two countries until German unification in 1990. Located in Central Europe and just smaller in size than Montana, Germany has the Bavarian Alps in the south, the uplands in the centre and lowlands in the north. The capital city is Berlin.

Athletics Wall of Fame

History

Many years ago Francis Clayton, BA 1993, had a dream of starting a Sports Wall of Fame to honour those that have made outstanding contributions to Lakehead University Athletics.

THUNDERWOLVES

In September of 1993 the Wall of Fame Committee was struck. It consisted of Norm Lavoie, Ron Lappage, Hank Akervall, Peter Dika, Steve Daniar, Francis Clayton, Dan Bissonnette and Darlene Yakimoski. Their mission was to develop the criteria for the wall which included who could be eligible for nomination to the wall. It was decided that each induction year there was a possibility of one builder, two athletes and one team being included.

In June of 1996 the First Annual Lakehead University Sports Wall of Fame Induction Dinner was held. It continued for five consecutive years. It was then decided that the dinner would be held every two years. Earlier today, the 2005 Inductees were honoured at an induction ceremony in the lounge of the Hangar where the new Wall of Fame is now located.
