This issue and beyond...
More teachers are beginning to contribute to Native Language Education in Ontario. They are highly motivated and deeply involved in the maintenance and revitalization of Native Language. Their enthusiasm gives me much hope that together, we can make a difference. We all know that it isn't easy trying to write an article within an already busy schedule! Help! Would you like to:
*review a resource
*write an article
*provide teaching suggestions
*share information abour a conference?
If the answer is yes to any of these please call

Coordinator's Message

Plans are now underway for the Native Language Instructor's Program (NLIP) for 2000. The Native Language Teachers' Certification (NLTC) and the Native As A First/Second Language Diploma (NAFL/NASL) Programs will be offered. Credit courses in Languages and Education will also be offered which are courses for non-speakers and advanced studies ("Institute" courses) for fluent speakers, grads and students who meet the admission requirements. Additional Qualifications (AQ) ED 4743 Native As A Second Language, Part I will be offered this summer.

The dates for the NLTC is Tuesday, July 4 - July 28 and Diploma (NASL) Program is Monday, July 12-July 28. Registration will be Tuesday, July 4, Orientation will be Wednesday, July 5 and Workshops will be held Thursday, July 6 and Thursday, July 7 and a General Assembly will be held on Friday, July 7, 2000.

Application packages were sent out in January. The packages include all the forms that need to be filled out and include information on residences and meal plans. The deadline for applications is May 30, 2000. Applications received after this date will be considered only if there are spaces available. To avoid disappointment, send in your application as soon as possible to the NLIP office.

We encourage you to share any information you may have on Native Language Education. It can be an article, a teaching idea, a poem, a game, a song, a book or any resource or reference material that you find useful. Please submit it to us and we can include it in our next Newsletter.

A reminder to the students who need to do their "teaching experience", if you have not made arrangements with a school, you should start seeking a placement now. Don't forget to get your practice teaching forms filled in and signed by the appropriate school official (NOT the principal) and send the form in to the NLIP office.

Students who have received their Certificate of Qualification (Restricted) are encouraged to come back and take the 4th year so that they can obtain the Native As A Second Language Diploma.

Students who have already taken Year 4 should be certain to complete their assignments for ED 1599 Winter Practicum as soon as possible and send them in to the NLIP office in order to receive the Native As A Second Language Diploma at the Spring 2000 Convocation exercises.

Special thanks go out to Diane, my new secretary, for all her hard work and devotion in putting together this newsletter.

It is with great sorrow that I announce the passing of one of our instructors, Lena White. Lena had been with the program since its inception in 1981. Lena will be missed by all who knew her.

I look forward to meeting all of you students again this summer.

Good luck in your future endeavors. Giga-waabimigoom miinawaa.

NATIVE LANGUAGE PROGRAMS AT LAKEHEAD UNIVERSITY SUMMER 2000

NLTC - NATIVE LANGUAGE TEACHERS' CERTIFICATION PROGRAM (July 4 - 28)
This program is for students wishing to teach an Algonquian language as a second language in the province of Ontario. This is a three summer program leading to teacher certification in teaching an Algonquian language as a second language. The Ontario College of Teachers issues a Certificate of Qualification (Restricted) upon successful completion of the program. This program is four weeks in duration which includes one week of workshops.

NASL - NATIVE AS A SECOND LANGUAGE DIPLOMA PROGRAM (July 10 - 28)
This program is for students wishing to teach Native as a second language. This is a four summer program leading to a diploma for Native language instructors. The diploma, issued by Lakehead University, is for students concentrating in teaching Native as a second language. Out-of-province second language instructors usually choose this program. Graduates of NLTC may transfer into year four of this program after fulfilling the NLIP practicum requirement. This program is a three week program and does not lead to Ministry Certification. (This program does not include the workshops from NLTC).

NAFL - NATIVE AS A SECOND LANGUAGE DIPLOMA PROGRAM (July 10 - 28)
This program is for students wishing to teach Native as a first language. This is a four summer program leading to a diploma for Native language instructors. The diploma, issued by Lakehead University, is for students concentrating on syllabic literacy and Native language arts. This program is a three week program and does not lead to Ministry Certificate. (This program does not include the workshops from NLTC).

IN LOVING MEMORY
of
Lena Odjig White
Waabi-Ojiig

LENA WHITE
(WAABI-OJIIG)
June 1, 1940 - January 28, 2000

Peacefully, after a short battle with cancer, Waabi-Ojiig walked into the spirit world.

Lena grew up on Wikwemikong Unceded First Nation on Manitoulin Island, Ontario. She resided at Roseau River Anishinabe First Nation since 1995. Lena was the daughter of the late Dominic Odjig and Lucy Odjig. She was the beloved wife of Charles Nelson of Roseau River. Lena also leaves two sons to treasure her memory, Stanford and Shannon White, both of Walpole Island, Ont., their father David White and Charlie's children Zongidaya, Jodee, Anna, Bawbee and Kirby of Roseau River.

Also left to mourn her passing are brothers, Frank, Wilfred (friend Denise), Ronnie (Mary Lynn), Gordie (friend Annette) and Clayton (friend Maryann), all of Wikwemikong; sister, Marcella Clarkson (Chuck) of Millgrove, Rose Marie Trudeau of Wikwemikong and Patricia of Toronto. Lena was predeceased by her sisters, Rita and Lorraine.

Lena was also a dear sister to Don (Mary Agnes) of Wikwemikong. Stanley Fisher (Boots of Sault Ste. Marie, Daphne Beauon (Chester) and Winnie Christian (George) of British Columbia. In-laws, Larry Glover, Margaret Jackson, Alanis King-Odjig as well as many nieces, nephews, relatives, godchildren and friends will miss Lena.

Lena's passing will be keenly felt by the Nelson family and her sisters and brothers of the Midewiwin Lodge, where she was a First Degree Midewiwin-quay. Lena never hesitated to stand up and do the work that she had committed her life to.

Lena was well known for her work in the area of Native Language Education and participated in the development of the Native Human Services Programme (Hons B.S.W.) at Laurentian University. She was a teacher of Native Language courses in the Native Language Instructors' Program at Lakehead University. Lena attained her Masters Degree at York University in the Canadian Relations Theme Area in the Faculty of Environmental Studies focusing on human environment and relationships, culture and languages.

Lena was uncomplaining to the end. She will be remembered for her energetic and helpful nature. She generously shared her many gifts with members of her community and Mide Lodge.

A traditional community wake took place on January 29 with Mide Teacher, Lawrence Henry at the Roseau River Anishinabe Community Hall. The first water drum teachings in memory of Waabi-Ojiig, as instructed by Mide Grand Chief Eddie Bento Benai, began at sunset on Sunday, January 30. Final preparations and teaching ceremonies began at sunset on Monday, January 31 and the burial ceremony was held on Tuesday, February 1 at 10:00 a.m. followed by a feast at noon.

Megwetch, Lena. Until we meet again in the spirit world.

Ojibwe Stories from Lansdowne House
Written by Cecilia Sugarhead

Edited, translated and with a glossary by John O'Meara

This book contains ten stories written by Cecilia Sugarhead, a speaker of Ojibwe from Lansdowne House, Ontario. These stories are well-known to Ojibwe-speaking people in Northern Ontario.

These texts from northwestern Ontario - about halfway between Lake Superior and Hudson's Bay - were written in Ojibwe syllabics and are here presented both in their original syllabic form and the standard roman orthography with the English translation on facing pages. This volume also provides a detailed introduction and a full glossary (along with an English-Ojibwe index) identifying all words which appear in the texts.

This is the first collection of narratives from a vast region where upriver Ojibwe communities border on downriver Cree communities to the north and east.

The narratives in this book both types of northern Ojibwe texts. The tipaatisoohkan ('legends') tell about the mythical past, in the time before the earth and creatures on it were fully formed. The tipaacimowin ('stories') range from personal experiences to historical accounts.

The collection of stories will be of interest to students of Ojibwe language and literature, as well as to educators seeking materials produced in and about the Ojibwe language.

Seventh Annual Stabilizing Indigenous Languages Conference
"Language Across the Community"

May 11-14, 2000, The Toronto Colony Hotel, Toronto, Canada
The Ontario Institute for Studies in Education of the University of Toronto

For six years now this conference has provided a unique opportunity for people world-wide to come together to work on practical issues, problems, and solutions to the challenges facing all indigenous languages. Elders, other community leaders, front-line workers, researchers, administrators, educators, students, media specialists, and advocates are invited to come and meet fellow workers,and take part in plenary sessions, workshops, and presentations about many kinds of action to promote, preserve, and supports indigenous languages. There will be hands-on workshops, descriptions of educational projects of many kinds, demonstrations of materials that have been produced, and talks by experienced leaders in the field.

This year's theme is "Language Across the Community", which will emphasize the many ways in which all community members can become involved in indigenous language activities. As always, it is expected that SCHOOL PROGRAMS will play an important part, with discussions and demonstrations related to various roles that the indigenous language can play in the school, such as subject of instruction, immersion programs, dual education and professional development, and materials and activities development. Special issues of administration for schools in which an indigenous language plays a role will come up. We expect to have a whole section of the program devoted to immersion programs.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT is essential, not only to support school programs (recruit teachers, support teachers, involve parents, make materials, link language and culture, and so on) but also create and celebrate real language use in all aspects of life. So, topics like language camps, language in sports and other community recreation, language at work, language in religion and culture, language and the media, and language in the community historical and cultural research can be discussed with examples. Adult literacy in the indigenous language, for example, is a growing activity.

SUPPORT RESEARCH will be covered in workshops and talks by people who are making dictionaries, studying effective ways of teaching indigenous languages, linking history and culture to language, planning policies and good administrative practices, and creating centers for language research and promotion. Conference goers can make their own contacts with people they would like to learn more from, and information will be available about organizations which help link people involved with indigenous language work.

We also hope that you will be attracted to the opportunity to visit beautiful Toronto, with our attractive exchange rates, breakfast with the Mayor, and excellent entertainment by local Aboriginal groups.

Timetable

Thursday, May 11, 2000	7 p.m.	Opening reception and plenary

American Indian Language Development Institute

"Traditions and Innovations in Indigenous Language Teaching"
The University of Arizona • Tucson, Arizona
June 5 – 30, 2000

The University of Arizona, Departments of Language, Reading and Culture and American Indian Studies, will host the 21st Annual American Indian Language Development Institute (AILDI). This year's AILDI will focus on specific teaching methods for maintaining and revitalizing indigenous languages in both the community and the school.

AILDI participants enroll in six graduate or undergraduate credit hours, working with linguists, tribal elders, bilingual/ESL specialists, teachers, aides and school administrators in an integrated, holistic learning experience. All courses lead toward regular degree programs and toward bilingual and ESL endorsements.

Course topics include:
- Foundations of Bilingual Education
- Creative Writing for Native American Communities
- Linguistics for Native American Communities
- Media, Reading and Language Arts for Native American Communities
- Bilingual Methods and Materials
- Bilingual Education Practicum
- Hopi Language and Culture
- Linguistics Workshop
