MANUEL SUAREZ

Manuel Suarez was born in Mexico City in 1943 and began his violin studies at the age of four in his native City. From 1956 to 1960 he studied at the New School of Music and the Curtis Institute of Music, Philadelphia, and from 1960 to 1964 at the Moscow State Conservatory.

His violin teachers have been D. Saloma, J. Smilovitz and I. Bredo in Mexico; E. Serratos and I. Galamian in Philadelphia and B. V. Belenky in Moscow. Mr. Suarez appeared on numerous occasions in Moscow and Leningrad while still a student of the Tchaikovsky Conservatory and after finishing his formal studies in Moscow, toured Europe, giving recitals in Helsinki, Oslo, Copenhagen, Brussels, Hamburg, and Paris. From there he performed in Central and South America and later gave concerts in Washington, D. C., and Munich, Germany.

Mr. Suarez has been the recipient of the three awards for violinists in Mexico - the Ernestina Hevia Award (National Youth Competition) in 1955; the Annual Award of the Union of Chroniclers of Theatre and Music (1962); and the Award of the People of Mexico, given by the Government of Mexico

Manuel Suarez has held positions of concertmaster and soloist with the major Symphony Orchestras in Mexico, including the National Symphony Orchestra. Prior to coming to Thunder Bay as a resident musician and Director of the Thunder Bay Symphony Orchestra, Mr. Suarez taught at the National School of Music in Mexico and was official soloist with the Ministry of Foreign Relations

The Board of Directors, on behalf of the citizens of Thunder Bay, wishes to express sincere thanks to the Thunder Bay City Council, the Ontario Arts Council and The Canada Council for their generous grants in support of the Thunder Bay Symphony and Thunder Bay Youth Symphony Music Programme.
